Guam-Based Planes Bomb Cong Target In South Viet Nam

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Another flight of B52 Strategic Air Command bombers pounded a suspected Viet Cong stronghold in South Viet Nam today, a U.S. military spokesman announced.

The raid by the Guam-based eight-engine jets — the 18th reported in the Vietnamese war — was made in Quang Tin Province 320 miles northeast of the capital.

A U.S. Air Force pilot was presumed killed in the crash of an F4C Phantom in North Viet Nam, 35 miles north of Vinh. The aircraft failed to pull out a dive in a strike with three other Phantoms at a highway bridge. Heavy antiaircraft fire was reported in the area.

A U.S. pilot downed over North Viet Nam three days ago was also officially listed as missing after a futile search and rescue operation.

In the ground war, a government force was reported to have killed 53 Viet Cong in a bloody battle in the swampy Mekong River delta but Vietnamese troops took heavy losses in a Communist attack against an outpost.

Twenty-four Communist guerrillas were reported captured Friday in the Mekong battle 75 miles southwest of Saigon in Vinh Binh Province. Vietnamese and American casualties were termed light.

The multibattalion government operation was launched Thursday in the canals and swamps at the mouth of the Bassac River 25 miles west of the provincial capital of Phu Vinh.

Government troops made contact with the Viet Cong five times Friday, the spokesman said. In the heaviest clash, the Communists reportedly suffered 22 casualties.

In the other action, a Viet Cong force estimated at three companies attacked a government outpost early today 135 miles south of the capital. The attack was beaten off by regional forces, but the defenders suf-

Settlement Announced By Johnson

'Package' Believed Between 46 And 48 Cents Over 3 Years

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Steel industry negotiators return from Washington today, a new contract ready for ratification and the threat of an industry shutdown apparently ended.

President Johnson announced their agreement at the White House Friday night, saying: "The settlement is a fair one. It is designed to prevent the inflation which would damage our prosperity."

Officials didn't reveal the terms pending ratification, but sources said the wage-benefit package was between 46 cents and 48 cents an hour over three years, depending on whether union or management figures were used.

The 450,000-member United Steelworkers of America, AFL-CIO, had sought a package it estimated at 48.9 cents. The 10-company management team pegged the package at 55 cents.

Sources said the settlement would increase pensions about $5 a month per year of service, a 50-cent increase over the company's offer of $4.50. Under the old contract, the maximum pension was about $7.60 a month per year of service.

It couldn't be learned how much of increase in hourly wages the Steelworkers would receive. The average wage now is pegged at $4.40 an hour.

Government sources would say only that the agreement is within the White House guidelines of a 3.2 per cent annual increase.

Johnson said the negotiators, in reaching agreement, put the national interest, including the

Kashmir Land, Air Battles Rage

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — Pakistani tanks, under a cover of jet planes, attacked in southwest Kashmir today and were hit by Indian planes, the Indian Defense Ministry reported.

An official Pakistani spokesman in Rawalpindi, the Pakistani capital, said 40 Indian air force jet fighters were engaged in a dogfight by Pakistani jets which scrambled to meet them after the Indians invaded Pakistani air space.

The Pakistani spokesman said the Indian Gnat and Hunter jets broke off the fight "after a short, sharp engagement." He reported all Pakistani aircraft returned safely and no known losses inflicted on the Indian planes.

Indian spokesmen said they had no details of the air attack on the Pakistani tanks or how the battle was going.

It appeared from the battle report that neither side was paying any attention to a cease-fire appeal by U.N. Secretary-General U Thant.

The aerial encounter came amid reports India would reject the appeal.

The attack on the tanks occurred in the same area where India reported Friday it had shot down two U.S.-built jets of the Pakistani air force. New Delhi promptly protested to Washington against Pakistan's use of the weapons, sent to Pakistan under a U.S. military aid program.

Prime Minister Lal Bahadur Shastri was reported today to have found Thant's cease-fire appeal unacceptable.

Widely circulated reports in New Delhi said the Indian government was insisting that any cease-fire would have to label Pakistan an aggressor and provide for Pakistani withdrawal of guerrillas from the Indian-held section of Kashmir — conditions almost certain to be rejected by Pakistan.

President Ayub Khan of Pakistan says India is the aggressor and disavows any control over the guerrillas.

Shastri said in a nationwide broadcast Friday night:

"A cease-fire is not peace. We cannot simply go from one cease-fire to another and wait until Pakistan chooses to start hostilities again."

In the Pakistani capital of Rawalpindi, the Kashmir "revolutionary Council" appealed to Thant to "help withdraw foreign forces from Kashmir so that peace is restored."

The 18-year-old dispute over Kashmir erupted anew on Aug. 5 with fighting on both sides of the U.N.-established cease-fire line.

According to India, Pakistani elements are about six miles into Indian Kashmir and Indian forces are in Pakistani Kashmir at three points.

In Ohio River Off New Cumberland

Dragging Operations Continued For 2 Men Who Vanish In Rowboat

Dragging was under way in the Ohio River today in the New Cumberland area for two Ohio men who disappeared while commuting by rowboat to jobs in West Virginia.

Authorities listed the missing men, employes of the Hancock Manufacturing Co., as Michael Bilchak, 52, of Toronto and Roy Durst, 62, of Knoxville, near Toronto.

Police Chief William Webster of New Cumberland is supervising the dragging operations, with boat club members from Toronto and Weirton assisting in the search.

Hancock Manufacturing has plants in New Cumberland and across the river in Toronto. Hancock County Deputy Sheriff Clovis Glover said today Bilchak and Durst had been employed at the Toronto plant but because of slack work there were sent to jobs at the New Cumberland plant. They had been using a rowboat to cross the river.

They failed to report for work here Friday morning. Their cars were found parked near the river at Toronto and Friday afternoon an empty rowboat was found floating 10 miles downstream.

Glover said today the rowboat had been identified as the one used by Bilchak and Durst.

The men checked in at the Toronto plant at 6 a.m. yesterday, then left to cross the river.

They usually left the shore promptly at 6:20. A heavy fog blanketed the river and fellow employes and plant officials did not become alarmed immediately when they failed to show up at the New Cumberland works.

By 10 a.m., Toronto police, the Jefferson County sheriff's office and Hancock County authorities were notified.

A search began immediately. Part of what appeared to be a lunch was found floating in the water.

The boat was discovered late in the afternoon near Follansbee. It was heavily damaged. Authorities speculate it could have been hit by a passing tow in the heavy fog.

Traffic Toll Spurts, With 66 Lives Lost

By The Associated Press

The count of traffic deaths on the nation's streets and highways picked up speed today.

A spurt sent the total up to 66.

Rain in parts of the Midwest and South gave a slow-down signal to thousands of Americans on Labor Day weekend trips.

The National Safety Council estimated that between 500 and 600 persons may be killed in motor vehicle accidents in the period that began at 6 p.m. Friday and will end at midnight Monday.

The council also figures that most of the 87 million vehicles in the nation will be rolling at one time or another and will run up a total of 8.9 billion miles of motoring, a record for a Labor Day weekend.

Last year's Labor Day weekend cost 531 highway deaths. In addition, there were 18 deaths in boating accidents and 59 drownings unrelated to boating — 608 accident deaths peculiar to holiday activity.

The 1963 holiday brought a record traffic toll to 557 for a Labor Day period. This contrasted with low mark of 246 for a post World War II Labor Day — in 1946.

"There is no more hope of human effort that can save him," said his daughter, Mrs. Rhena Schweitzer Eckert.

A telegram sent by the hospital to members of the family and close friends of the 90-year-old jungle physician said tersely:

"He is dying stop inevitably and soon stop everything that can be done has been done stop he goes quietly and in peace and dignity."

Mrs. Eckert, her face showing signs of fatigue and sleepless nights, said, "another man would have given up long ago. But my father was stronger than most men."

Dr. Walter Muns, medical director of the hospital, said Schweitzer was "resting peacefully. He is not suffering."

Dr. Richard Friedmann, a long-time associate of Schweitzer, said the old doctor's kidney action had stopped functioning.

Schweitzer rallied briefly Friday afternoon, then lapsed into a coma.

"Late Friday night we knew that all was lost," said Friedmann.

Dr. David Miller, an American heart specialist summoned to Schweitzer's bedside, said he was planning to fly back to the United States next Tuesday "barring a miracle."

Work went on as usual in the world famous jungle hospital set in a clearing on the banks of the muddy Ogoove River.

"We don't want to spread alarm among the Africans," one hospital staff member said.

Outside Schweitzer's wooden hut a group of tearful white-clad women assistants stood in a tense knot.

Security Council At U.N. Alerted In Kashmir Crisis

BULLETIN

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—U.S. Ambassador Arthur J. Goldberg, September President of the U.N. Security Council, called the council to meet this afternoon to consider the Indian - Pakistani fighting in Kashmir.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — U.S. Ambassador Arthur J. Goldberg asked delegates to the U.N. Security Council to stand by for a possible meeting today to ask India and Pakistan for a cease-fire in Kashmir.

Goldberg, the council president for September, could not reach all of its 11 members Friday but the majority indicated they favor a meeting today, a spokesman said.

Informants said U.N. Secretary-General U Thant wanted a resolution to strengthen the cease-fire appeal he sent Wednesday to India and Pakistan.

Thant ordered publication today of a recent confidential report by Australian Lt. Gen. Robert H. Nimmo, chief of the U.N. military observer group in India and Pakistan, which checks on compliance with a 1949 cease-fire agreement for the disputed border area.

As described by persons who read it, the document said Nimmo indicated the trouble began last month when armed men, not in uniform, crossed from the Pakistan side into the Indian sector of Kashmir.

Nimmo also reported that India and Pakistan had shelled

Settlement Announced By Johnson

'Package' Believed Between 46 And 48 Cents Over 3 Years

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Steel industry negotiators return from Washington today, a new contract ready for ratification and the threat of an industry shutdown apparently ended.

President Johnson announced their agreement at the White House Friday night, saying: "The settlement is a fair one. It is designed to prevent the inflation which would damage our prosperity."

Officials didn't reveal the terms pending ratification, but sources said the wage-benefit package was between 46 cents and 48 cents an hour over three years, depending on whether union or management figures were used.

The 450,000-member United Steelworkers of America, AFL-CIO, had sought a package it estimated at 48.9 cents. The 10-company management team pegged the package at 55 cents.

Sources said the settlement would increase pensions about $5 a month per year of service, a 50-cent increase over the company's offer of $4.50. Under the old contract, the maximum pension was about $7.60 a month per year of service.

It couldn't be learned how much of increase in hourly wages the Steelworkers would receive. The average wage now is pegged at $4.40 an hour.

Government sources would say only that the agreement is within the White House guidelines of a 3.2 per cent annual increase.

Johnson said the negotiators, in reaching agreement, put the national interest, including the

A slide-illustrated talk stressing the need for better vision was presented by Don Cain of the Carskadden Optical Co. of Zanesville during the meeting of the Lions Club Friday noon at the Travelers Hotel.

The optical representative pointed out the talk and slides were prepared by the Better Vision Institute, a non - profit educational organization, to point out man's increasing need for good vision as technology advances.

There are 64 million people in the country who do not see as much as they should and could be helped if they were aware of the aids available, Cain said. He estimated 95 per cent of vision deficiencies now can be corrected.

Good vision wasn't so critical in man's early years and even in the early development of America most jobs required muscle and stamina rather than excellent eyesight.

Today the nation depends more on mental than on physical skills, he said, noting there are some 25,000 job types where good vision is regarded as a critical need.

Twenty - six companies conducted vision tests for employes, which showed four out of 10 had inadequate vision for the jobs they held.

Cain pointed out poor vision can be a handicap in a man's career progress, while good vision increases productivity and helps increase morale.

The continuous increase in the use of autos also makes it necessary for good vision, although only 17 states require eye examinations for periodic license renewals. In Ohio, a blind person can legally drive a car since no vision test is required to renew his license.

Cain urged club members to have periodic eye examinations and push legislation making it mandatory for eye tests before driver's licenses are renewed.

He was introduced by Dr. William Bartolovich, program chairman.

Donald T. Duke, president, reminded members the Board of Directors will meet Tuesday at 8 p. m. at the Ohio Valley Gas Co. office.

Hurricane

whipping around a well-defined eye 35 miles in diameter.

The Bahamas Islands escaped damage as the hurricane whirled up the Atlantic Ocean east of the chain. Winds peaked at 35 miles an hour on Abaco, one of the larger islands.

At 9 a.m., Betsy was centered near latitude 28.2 north, longitude 75.3 west. This is about 325 miles east of Melbourne, Fla., and 500 miles south of Cape Hatteras.

The storm churned up 120,000 square miles of the Atlantic. Tides were expected to rise during the day from Cape Kennedy northward as Betsy moved toward the northwest at eight miles an hour.

Forecasters warned that the tightly organized storm, with peak winds of 125 miles an hour, posed a threat to the coastline south of Cape Hatteras, N.C.

"It's going to get rough up there over the weekend," said forecaster Raymond Kraft.

"We still won't know 'till Sunday whether it will go ashore, he said, "but we don't want a lot of people out in small boats or swimming around in the ocean even if it doesn't."

Heavy seas, pushed by Betsy's 400-mile-wide sweep of gales, are running 6 feet or better 75 miles off the Georgia coast, Kraft said.

Pounding surf will begin battering beaches Sunday, he said, and will get rougher as Betsy approaches.

Late Friday night, Betsy was 500 miles south of Charleston, S.C., and heading toward it at 12 m.p.h.

Two weather conditions were battling to see which would steer Betsy, Kraft said. One was the lower-level westerly winds that tend to push her toward the open Atlantic. The other was a high-level air trough sucking her toward the coast.

There was no way of forecasting two days in advance which would win, he said.

The threat to Florida was almost nonexistent, he said. Betsy was expected to spin past the Florida coast 250 to 300 miles east of Jacksonville during the day.

The Bahamas escaped with little more than rough seas and mild gales. The storm missed Great Abaco Island, northernmost in the 750-mile chain, by 170 miles. Weather stations were reporting rough seas and 34 m.p.h. winds, but that was not enough to cause damage.

Just in case Betsy had changed course, as she has done so many times, the National Aeronatics and Space Administration evacuated personnel from Allan Cay, a small Bahama Island. Other stations on alert were not hit by high winds.

Traffic

from 6 p.m., Friday, Aug. 20, to midnight Monday Aug. 23, the traffic deaths numbered 451, a survey by The Associated Press showed. The news service check also recorded 11 boating and 45 drowning deaths during last month's test period.

28 Traffic Deaths Predicted For Ohio

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohioans were expected to jam the state's recreational areas— and highways— this Labor Day weekend, the last long holiday period of the summer season.

Highway safety officials somberly predicted 28 deaths on Ohio's roads this weekend. A total of 22 persons were killed during the Labor Day holiday last year.

The Highway Patrol ordered its men out in force in an effort to reduce the accident toll.

each other's sectors with artillery, and that both sides still occupied areas seized in each other's zones.

Nimmo's report was prepared before Pakistani regulars crossed the cease-fire line Wednesday.

According to Nimmo, on Aug. 24 "armed elements" from Pakistan were still occupying Indian outposts seized north of Mandin in the punch sector of Indian Kashmir.

The report also said Indian army troops had been occupying Pakistan positions in the Cargil area since Aug. 15 and in the Tangdar-Nauseri (Tithwal) area since Aug. 24.

Thant recently sent the confidential report to India, Pakistan and Security Council members.

fered heavy losses, authorities said.

Two Viet Cong were killed and left behind in the assault in Bac Lieu Province 25 miles west of Vinh Loi. A company of troops defended the outpost.

Communist gunners brought down the U.S. Air Force pilot Thursday while he was on a bombing mission 100 miles west of Hanoi.

U.S. warplanes continued raids in the north with bombing assaults on warehouse areas, bridges and trucks.

A multibattalion operation in Long An Province just south of Saigon resulted in light casualties to government troops, the spokesman said. In a second operation in Long An Province government troops destroyed boats and huts and seized rice, communication wire and medical supplies apparently left by the Viet Cong.

At the big U.S. air base at Da Nang, 380 miles north of Saigon, former Vice President Richard M. Nixon, on four-day visit to South Viet Nam, said he believes South Vietnamese morale has increased sharply since his last visit 18 months ago.

Steel

Viet Nam war, above their own interests.

The union's 170-man wage policy committee meets in Pittsburgh at 9 a.m. Sunday to consider the White House spurred agreement.

A union source said no difficulty was expected. Ratification by the 10 major steel firms which produce 80 per cent of the nation's steel was expected to be routine.

The President called the steelmen from Pittsburgh to Washington on Monday, talked to them and that evening announced they had extended the shutdown deadline eight days from the original Tuesday midnight deadline.

Then the President kept the negotiators isolated in the Executive Office Building next door to the White House, sending them lunch and dinner, and prodding them at strategic moments.

Johnson took a prolonged stroll around the White House Friday, lingering for about half an hour where the negotiators could see him from their negotiating rooms and remember that he was champing at the bit to go to his Texas ranch as soon as they reached agreement.

He made it clear he wouldn't leave without it.

The agreement came within two hours after Johnson instructed Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz and Secretary of Commerce John T. Connor to lay the administration's compromise suggestions on the bargaining table at 3:15 p.m.

The two sides were reported at a stalemate with four cents separating their positions when Johnson moved for the first time with specific suggestions for an agreement.

PTA At Calcutta Sets First Meeting Of Fall

Touching Story About Sorrowing Elephant

MADRAS, India (AP) — South Indians are telling a touching story of an elephant's display of sorrow and affection for his master who cared for him 40 years.

This is how the story reached Madras:

Abdullah Saheb, a 68-year-old Moslem, was standing beside his elephant outside a Hindu temple in Nainarkoil, fondling the elephant's trunk. Suddenly Abdullah collapsed and died, presumably of a heart attack.

The elephant quickly took up a protective stance over his body and threatened all who attempted to approach. Hundreds of pilgrims watched and said they saw tears flowing from the elephant's eyes.

Abdullah's son was summoned and after being cajoled, the huge beast permitted the body to be removed.

The Old Firehouse Gong Has Vanished

LOUISVILLE (AP) — The old firehouse gong has vanished in Louisville.

The bells were rigged outside of stations in the days of horse-drawn firewagons to warn passerbys the rigs were about to dash out.

Horns later supplanted the bells and Maj. Robert O. Catlett, the department's property officer, now has ordered the remaining relics dismantled.

THE MANY-PURPOSE ROOM

With the advent of smaller homes, the living room very often must serve as a parlor, family sitting room, game room, library and even provide facilities for dining. As a consequence, every inch of space must be used efficiently.

Furniture designers, aware of this, have originated wonderfully comfortable and compact pieces that save space and are dual-functional — and without sacrificing one iota of smart good looks.

The sketch above shows a room which is used for sleeping, eating, day-in-day-out living and entertaining . . . a feat that has been accomplished with charm and style.

The attractive sleep sofa is comfortable to sit and sleep on and has storage concealed for bedding. Small-scaled lounge chairs invite relaxation, are not bulky looking. Large chest serves as a storage unit as well as a lamp table.

Notice the compact arrangement of the dining group — circular table (takes less space), light-weight ladder back chairs that can be easily moved into the conversation area, and the cabinet with hutch top which houses linen, dishes and silver.

Wall-to-wall carpet and walls are a rich olive green — play up the beauty of the maple furniture.

Most of us are space minded these days. To meet your needs for dual-purpose furnishings that will function efficiently with style and charm we have searched out the newest and best. Come in soon, won't you? We will enjoy showing you around.

Hurricane

whipping around a well-defined eye 35 miles in diameter.

The Bahamas Islands escaped damage as the hurricane whirled up the Atlantic Ocean east of the chain. Winds peaked at 35 miles an hour on Abaco, one of the larger islands.

At 9 a.m., Betsy was centered near latitude 28.2 north, longitude 75.5 west. This is about 325 miles east of Melbourne, Fla., and 500 miles south of Cape Hatteras.

The storm churned up 120,000 square miles of the Atlantic. Tides were expected to rise during the day from Cape Kennedy northward as Betsy moved toward the northwest at eight miles an hour.

Forecasters warned that the tightly organized storm, with peak winds of 125 miles an hour, posed a threat to the coastline south of Cape Hatteras, N.C.

"It's going to get rough up there over the weekend," said forecaster Raymond Kraft.

"We still won't know 'till Sunday whether it will go ashore, he said, "but we don't want a lot of people out in small boats or swimming around in the ocean even if it doesn't."

Heavy seas, pushed by Betsy's 400-mile-wide sweep of gales, are running 6 feet or better 75 miles off the Georgia coast, Kraft said.

Pounding surf will begin battering beaches Sunday, he said, and will get rougher as Betsy approaches.

Late Friday night, Betsy was 500 miles south of Charleston, S.C., and heading toward it at 12 m.p.h.

Two weather conditions were battling to see which would steer Betsy, Kraft said. One was the lower-level westerly winds that tend to push her toward the open Atlantic. The other was a high-level air trough sucking her toward the coast.

There was no way of forecasting two days in advance which would win, he said.

The threat to Florida was almost nonexistent, he said. Betsy was expected to spin past the Florida coast 250 to 300 miles east of Jacksonville during the day.

The Bahamas escaped with little more than rough seas and mild gales. The storm missed Great Abaco Island, northernmost in the 750-mile chain, by 170 miles. Weather stations were reporting rough seas and 34 m.p.h. winds, but that was not enough to cause damage.

Just in case Betsy had changed course, as she has done so many times, the National Aeronatics and Space Administration evacuated personnel from Allan Cay, a small Bahama Island. Other stations on alert were not hit by high winds.

Traffic

from 6 p.m., Friday, Aug. 20, to midnight Monday Aug. 23, the traffic deaths numbered 451, a survey by The Associated Press showed. The news service check also recorded 11 boating and 45 drowning deaths during last month's test period.

28 Traffic Deaths Predicted For Ohio

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohioans were expected to jam the state's recreational areas— and highways— this Labor Day weekend, the last long holiday period of the summer season.

Highway safety officials somberly predicted 28 deaths on Ohio's roads this weekend. A total of 22 persons were killed during the Labor Day holiday last year.

The Highway Patrol ordered its men out in force in an effort to reduce the accident toll.

Nimmo's report was prepared before Pakistani regulars crossed the cease-fire line Wednesday.

According to Nimmo, on Aug. 24 "armed elements" from Pakistan were still occupying Indian outposts seized north of Mandin in the punch sector of Indian Kashmir.

The report also said Indian army troops had been occupying Pakistan positions in the Cargil area since Aug. 15 and in the Tangdar-Nauseri (Tithwal) area since Aug. 24.

Thant recently sent the confidential report to India, Pakistan and Security Council members.

Two Viet Cong were killed and left behind in the assault in Bac Lieu Province 25 miles west of Vinh Loi. A company of troops defended the outpost.

Communist gunners brought down the U.S. Air Force pilot Thursday while he was on a bombing mission 100 miles west of Hanoi.

U.S. warplanes continued raids in the north with bombing assaults on warehouse areas, bridges and trucks.

A multibattalion operation in Long An Province just south of Saigon resulted in light casualties to government troops, the spokesman said. In a second operation in Long An Province government troops destroyed boats and huts and seized rice, communication wire and medical supplies apparently left by the Viet Cong.

At the big U.S. air base at Da Nang, 380 miles north of Saigon, former Vice President Richard M. Nixon, on four-day visit to South Viet Nam, said he believes South Vietnamese morale has increased sharply since his last visit 18 months ago.

men from Pitisburgh to Washington on Monday, talked to them and that evening announced they had extended the shutdown deadline eight days from the original Tuesday midnight deadline.

Then the President kept the negotiators isolated in the Executive Office Building next door to the White House, sending them lunch and dinner, and prodding them at strategic moments.

Johnson took a prolonged stroll around the White House Friday, lingering for about half an hour where the negotiators could see him from their negotiating rooms and remember that he was champing at the bit to go to his Texas ranch as soon as they reached agreement.

He made it clear he wouldn't leave without it.

The agreement came within two hours after Johnson instructed Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz and Secretary of Commerce John T. Connor to lay the administration's compromise suggestions on the bargaining table at 3:15 p.m.

The two sides were reported at a stalemate with four cents separating their positions when Johnson moved for the first time with specific suggestions for an agreement.

Touching Story About Sorrowing Elephant

MADRAS, India (AP) — South Indians are telling a touching story of an elephant's display of sorrow and affection for his master who cared for him 40 years.

This is how the story reached Madras:

Abdullah Saheb, a 68-year-old Moslem, was standing beside his elephant outside a Hindu temple in Nainarkoil, fondling the elephant's trunk. Suddenly Abdullah collapsed and died, presumably of a heart attack.

The elephant quickly took up a protective stance over his body and threatened all who attempted to approach. Hundreds of pilgrims watched and said they saw tears flowing from the elephant's eyes.

Abdullah's son was summoned and after being cajoled, the huge beast permitted the body to be removed.

The Old Firehouse Gong Has Vanished

LOUISVILLE (AP) — The old firehouse gong has vanished in Louisville.

The bells were rigged outside of stations in the days of horse-drawn firewagons to warn passerbys the rigs were about to dash out.

Horns later supplanted the bells and Maj. Robert O. Catlett, the department's property officer, now has ordered the remaining relics dismantled.

THE MANY-PURPOSE ROOM

With the advent of smaller homes, the living room very often must serve as a parlor, family sitting room, game room, library and even provide facilities for dining. As a consequence, every inch of space must be used efficiently.

Furniture designers, aware of this, have originated wonderfully comfortable and compact pieces that save space and are dual-functional — and without sacrificing one iota of smart good looks.

The sketch above shows a room which is used for sleeping, eating, day-in-day-out living and entertaining . . . a feat that has been accomplished with charm and style.

The attractive sleep sofa is comfortable to sit and sleep on and has storage concealed for bedding. Small-scaled lounge chairs invite relaxation, are not bulky looking. Large chest serves as a storage unit as well as a lamp table.

Notice the compact arrangement of the dining group — circular table (takes less space), light-weight ladder back chairs that can be easily moved into the conversation area, and the cabinet with hutch top which houses linen, dishes and silver.

Wall-to-wall carpet and walls are a rich olive green — play up the beauty of the maple furniture.

Most of us are space minded these days. To meet your needs for dual-purpose furnishings that will function efficiently with style and charm we have searched out the newest and best. Come in soon, won't you? We will enjoy showing you around.

Odd Thing About Education

It's time for school again.

Education is the most ambitious project in the United States, other than national defense. Also the costliest.

But unlike national defense, everybody is for education, mostly with enthusiasm. Even its knockers admit we can't get along without it.

It's an odd thing about education, though. Everybody talks about it, supports it and is happy about the idea, yet scarcely anyone can agree what it should be, least of all educators, themselves.

Because educators do not have a solid front, this gives everybody else a chance to tee off at will, still further confusing the open-ended question of what education is and should be.

Thus, at any given moment the whole matter of education is under violent and often inexpert criticism.

Americans traditionally feel free to be backseat drivers about government, utilities, newspapers, restaurants, public roads and other assorted matters of which they know little and speak much.

But their favorite target for pointed improvements is education. Rare indeed is the student, parent, taxpayer or critic-at-large who is not willing to pass resounding judgment on schools, teachers and what the rising generation is learning in the classroom.

IT ALL COMES down to this:

Beyond reading, writing and arithmetic —and there is no agreement even on these fundamentals—education is a process of assimilating knowledge, with no mental holds barred.

A student can range from completely free inquiry to restricted inquiry.

He can seek education in the most famous schools, or get it fly-by-night on his own time in a public library.

But if his aim in life is to be educated—if he is a bona fide student at heart—he cannot be denied learning.

On the other hand, if his aim is to resist education, the best school on earth can avail nothing against his indifference.

The one indispensable ingredient in education is incentive to learn.

Incentive can overcome even the obstacle of mental retardation.

Nothing known to teachers, administrators, parents and the vast host of critics who speak freely because they are unhampered by knowledge of the subject can overcome indifference.

THE DARKEST, toughest mystery of education is why so many young people who are having it handed to them on a platter strike it away and destroy their chance to learn.

Many actually go to war with their teachers, fighting education as if it was a mortal enemy, when in truth it is their only chance to survive in a society with no place for the uneducated.

It's time for school again.

Here we go, on another great adventure into the unknown but, at the same time, the infinitely knowable!

Viet Nam Truce Within Reach

In the magnifying-glass scrutiny of U.S. proposals for negotiating a truce in Viet Nam, one detail looms larger than all the rest.

The United States wants the people of South Viet Nam to choose their own government.

It does not say what kind of government they must choose, only that it must be a government of their own choice.

Any cease-fire agreement that guaranteed a free election would satisfy Washington. There apparently are no other requirements for a cease-fire that could not be satisfied if channels of communication could be cleared between Washington and Hanoi.

Washington would be willing to recognize spokesmen for the Viet Cong and abandon its earlier insistence that North Viet Nam alone was responsible for the war.

It would be willing to forget its earlier insistence on withdrawal of Viet Cong forces in return for the right to keep U.S. troops in South Viet Nam until a cease-fire had been stabilized.

It would be willing to accept a pledge of amnesty for its friends in South Viet nam in return for a South Vietnamese pledge of amnesty for that republic's enemies.

This could be the way out of a war that could be won only at the cost of destroying most of what supposedly was being saved.

Peace rumors have been breaking out. They were given credence by Sen. Mansfield of Montana, the administration's leader in the upper house.

Sen. Mansfield, speaking for the Johnson administration, outlined a truce stand close enough to Hanoi's own specifications to justify hope that a cease-fire is now regarded by the United States and North Viet Nam as within reach.

Differences Of Opinion

One of our readers recently disagreed strongly with an opinion on this page. That was nothing new. It happens all the time.

That's why we have editorials. They express opinions. People who read them agree, disagree, or have no opinion of their own. But the purpose of editorials is to provoke thought, not win unanimous agreement.

Our disagreeing reader made some remarks that sound to us as if he may never have thought about a basic precept of a free press.

It is the right to disagree — the reader's right as well as the writer's right. Freedom of press, it must be remembered, is guaranteed to everybody.

It is guaranteed to our disagreeing reader, just like freedom of speech.

We consider it a privilege to publish letters that disagree with us, provided they are written and signed in good faith.

We would be flabbergasted if everybody agreed with us. We don't expect it.

But we wish all our readers would understand that we place as high a value on contrary opinion as on agreement.

It isn't what people think that matters in the final analysis. In a free society, what matters is whether people think.

If what we say stimulates thinking, whether a reader agrees or disagrees with it, we have made our point.

Our reader asks in his missive:

"Did you ever stop to think how a lot of people feel about you?"

Yes. We think about it. We figure if about half of them agree and the other half disagree, with due allowance for those who have no opinion, we're hitting par for the course.

Maybe Next Year

By Truman Twill

When we strike oil, we will travel.

Having traveled just enough to know what we want to do and see, if we ever do strike oil, I have prepared specifications.

When we are traveling — my traveling companion and I — there will be only two pieces of luggage.

They will be large enough to carry what we need, but not so large I cannot cope with them under my own steam. Coping with luggage is now compulsory for travelers.

Collapsible boxes suitable for mailing home dirty clothes are among the specifications. Meanwhile a loyal functionary at home will be setting up caches of clean clothes at advanced stops of the itinerary.

This will be necessary only when the expedition is hitting the trail. Trail-hitting will not be the standing order of procedure, however.

No sir.

When we strike oil, we will see the world — one month at every point of major interest.

Traveling will be pursuant only to getting there; it will never be an end in itself.

I cannot understand how people cram kids, dogs, themselves, potato chips, cushions, blankets and miscellaneous camping equipment into autos and drive for days at a time without regular meals and proper rest.

I cannot understand how women can maintain their dignity in hair curlers, rumpled clothes and cracker crumbs while suffering from chronic highway fatigue and roadside snacks.

Nor can I understand how a man sustains morale while heading up the equivalent of a camel caravan across the Sahara desert, worrving about the traveling equipment and whether he will bring the safari safely to camp before nightfall.

Automobiles are unexcelled for short hauls.

So are buses.

Trains for middle hauls.

Airplanes for distance.

Nuts to ships.

Best of all is being there — not getting there.

When we strike oil, we will stay a month at all the places we would like to go back to see and all the places we want to see.

This will include London, Edinburgh, Canberra, Vancouver, New Orleans, Banff, Hongkong, Tokyo, Rome, Alexandria, Athens, Madrid, Hanover N. H., St. Augustine — just to name 14.

It will take a lot of oil.

So much for Vacation 1965.

Who knows what next year will be like. Maybe the moon, by rocket. Whoosh.

Horseshoes Next?

It is comforting to know that the U.S. House of Representatives is looking out for our best interests, almost to a man.

With only four dissenting votes, the House has punched through a bill to create a three-member federal boxing commission, members of which would rake in a purse of $26,000 a year while performing such tasks as issuing licenses and regulating television and radio broadcasts of fights which it decides are not in the public interest.

There is no question that boxing has fallen into national disgrace. The two-step, one-punch Clay-Liston fiasco didn't exactly enhance the name of the game.

But if it takes another band of bureaucrats to salvage the sport, why bother? Besides, where does this federal control stop? If Congress had enough idle time on its hands to dream this one up, watch out for the slow season next year.

You may wind up taking out a federal license to pitch horseshoes.

That Chip On His Shoulder

It's 'Propaganda Or Pumpernickel'

By Victor Riesel

The Russians will have to choose between "propaganda and pumpernickel."

That's how the peppery Teddy Gleason, leader of 60,000 Longshoremen put it when we talked dockside of reports that the Soviet government was not purchasing U.S. wheat and other grains because of American labor's insistence that half the shipments go in American flag vessels.

Victor Riesel

There was nothing belligerent in the voice of the bantam president of the International Longshoremen's Association (ILA).

Quietly Gleason said it would take the Marines to get grain loaded onto any ship, American or foreign, in Atlantic or Gulf Coast ports, if U.S. shippers did not get half the business.

Unless Gleason's followers load that grain, it won't get into the cargo holds. If "the Marines" handle it, the American ships won't sail because their crews belong to Paul Hall's militant Seafarers, or the National Maritime Union. If the government mans the ship, the Marine Engineers will strike again.

THEY'RE ALL bound up in the Joint Maritime Labor Committee, headed by Gleason.

"We will stand by the '50-50' agreement we made with President Johnson in February 1964 and we believe he will not pressure us into abandoning it," explained Gleason.

"The word from the wheat bowl is that the Russians are not buying from us because American shipping costs are too high. True, the American shipping costs are some 6½ per cent above the fees of the slave labor foreign flagships. But the Russians are spending a hundred times that 6½ per cent on subversive propaganda against us; and on guns, missiles and ground weapons for North Viet Nam; and a million dollars a day to bolster Fidel Castro.

"Furthermore, to our definite knowledge, some of the wheat, which other nations are selling to the Soviets, is being transferred to Cuba and the Viet Cong now."

GLEASON and those of his colleagues such as the juggernaut Paul Hall would prefer that all grain shipments cease. But they're willing to move the cargoes as long as President Johnson requests it.

These anti-Communist labor men assert the Soviet government is not really concerned with saving the money involved. The unionists firmly believe that the Russian propagandists just don't want their people to see American flag vessels heave into Red ports.

Two years ago, when U.S. flag ships delivered grain to Odessa and other Black Sea ports, the Russian populace hailed American sailors and treated them like heroes. This, the Moscow government, now seeking the Viet Cong and Ho Chi Minh forces as allies, considers a hazard to its Asian alliances.

CERTAINLY, says Gleason and Hall, the Russians don't want it to appear that their agricultural, food processing and delivery systems have collapsed—and that they turn to "imperialist" America for rescue.

Gleason summed it up by saying the choice was between accepting the viewpoint either of Sen. George McGovern, D-S.D., or Rep. Paul Findley, R-Ill., McGovern has said: "From every standpoint—economic, political and moral — it makes sense for us to sell surplus wheat to dollar customers even when we disagree on idealogy."

Findley says: "To me it is incredible to even contemplate expanded trade with the government which provides North Viet Nam with the surface-to-air missiles which already have sent several U.S. airmen to their graves."

The working men of the waterfront, tough but not cynical, prefer Findley's position.

THE WATERFRONT unions, which have not heard from President Johnson on the matter, have had their own research departments analyze the extra costs to the Soviets of shipping half of any wheat purchases in American freighters. This comes to a little more than $6 million on $100 million grain sale.

The Joint Maritime Labor Committee just does not believe that the $6 million actually makes a substantive difference to the U.S.S.R. The amount is "not very much more than the Soviets are spending every six months or so on bombs and terror in Venezuela, Bolivia and Columbia," one waterfront labor man asserted.

At this point, Teddy Gleason gave the Russians the propaganda or pumpernickel ultimatum.

Persuasive Propagandist

By Richard Spong

Mme. Chiang Kai-Shek early in her present visit to the United States has renewed her role of persuasive propagandist for Nationalist China's cause. Communist China's atomic weapons development, Mme. Chiang said at La Guardia airport on Aug. 29, must be halted at once. "We should try to cut out the cancer before it permeates any further."

The first lady of Taiwan is a symbol of the hope and menace of Nationalist China. Americans are ambivalent about the Nationalists. Some view them as craggy patriots, intent only on returning to the mainland that was euchered away from them.

Others, as A. M. Rosenthal put it in the New York Times a few years back, see only "a gang of political failures, who lost their homeland through their own corruption and cruelty, and now are cynically and brutally holding on to the remnant of power, perpetually stirring up crises to cover their weakness and their rejection by their own people."

EITHER VIEW is extreme, as Rosenthal was suggesting. It's said that for the 2 million who fled with Chiang Kai-Shek from the mainland in 1949 he is the symbol of hope of return. Many of the remaining 9 million Chinese on Taiwan are said to wish that he would hurry up and go.

The president and the vice president of Nationalist China are elected for a six-year term by the National Assembly. The Assembly was continued in office in Taiwan in 1954 when the Republic's High Court found the necessary constitutional authority. They re-elected Chiang then and again six years later.

At that time the Assembly suspended the operation of a provision in the constitution which permits the president and vice president to serve only two successive terms in office.

THE GENERALISSIMO married Mayling Soong, daughter of well-to-do Shanghai Christians, in 1927. He promptly became a devout Methodist.

Now 67, the Phi Beta Kappa Wellesley graduate fought loyally at Chiang's side against the Japanese in World War II and the Communists thereafter. She describes herself in Who's Who as a "Chinese sociologist," and indeed she has been in the forefront of most of her nation's social welfare activity.

The Chiang regime on Taiwan has been spectacularly successful in industrial growth and land reform. The U.S. State Department announced in May 1964 that U.S. economic assistance would end in June 1965 because of the "healthy economic growth of Nationalist China."

GRIN AND BEAR IT By George Lichty

Riots Vs. Justice

By David Lawrence

Doctrine Of Law Violation Questioned

It isn't often that a clergyman also has had a successful career as a government lawyer and in private business. Ministers have rarely had the opportunity tp study the law of the land as was the experience of Rev. Robert B. Watts, pastor of an Episcopal church in La Jolla, Calif.

David Lawrence

A sermon delivered by the Rev. Watts since the Los Angeles riots deplores the doctrine that it is all right to disobey an unjust law. The latter idea, enunciated by the Rev. Martin Luther King Jr., Negro leader, has aroused considerable objection not only among clergymen but among laymen as well throughout the country.

Rev. Watts was graduated from Yale Law School where he was editor of The Yale Law Journal. He practiced law in Chicago and New Yorkand was chief assistant U.S. attorney in New York City for several years and served also as special assistant to the attorney general of the United States.

He was with the National Labor Relations Board for nine years — from 1934 to 1943. For three of these he was general counsel of the board and argued many of its cases in the Supreme Court of the United States.

HE SERVED also in business as vice president and general counsel of Consolidated Vultee Aircraft Corp. and later with General Dynamics Corp. He was ordained in 1958 in the Episcopal Diocese of Los Angeles.

Rev. Watts, in his recent sermon, said:

"There has been advanced by various philosophical followers of the Rev. Martin Luther King Jr., one of the most extraordinary suggestions ever made in Anglo-Saxon or American legal annals. As a mixture of sophistry and soft-headedness, brewed by non-legal or corroded legal minds, I assert that this suggestion has spawned the present wave of destruction now sweeping the country.

"In brief, this proposed doctrine is that if any individual citizen or group of citizens, after meditation, come to the conclusion that any law is unjust; and further conclude that if apprehended he or they are willing to accept the penalty imposed for violation of the law — then it becomes morally justifiable to break the law openly and notoriously.

"Of course the worst thing about this doctrine is that there are no dividing lines in it. If it's valid for a small violation, it applies equally to a more serious one. Once you start this approach there is no stopping. It's like a roller coaster which nears the top of the track. Once you push it over a little bit, it plunges down all the way.

"THE AMAZING THING is that many clergy of this church, including both priests and bishops, have openly and officially accepted this doctrine. Episcopal clergymen have received written expressions of this doctine for their guidance. And large numbers of clergy of this and other communions have been sent, or have gone on their own volition, to Southern areas for the sole purpose of expressing racial concerns by open law defiance pursuant to this new assertion of moral right.

"Finally, as sorely distressed Christians we see instance after instance of reluctance on the part of elected officials to meet lawlessness quickly and firmly lest there be an adverse effect upon their personal political careers at the ballot box. Thank God, not all our officials are of this character, but too many are."

Rev. Watts declared that it ought to be perfectly clear that no person, "however exalted he may be or regard himself, has the right to say that what was wrong before becomes morally right if the acting party is willing to be punished if caught."

He pointed out that clergymen have a duty not only to support the Constitution and laws of the land but to reject the doctrine "of a morally justified civil disobedience."

HE URGED that there be no compromise with lawlessness, and he added that Christians should "seek by all lawful and proper means to help our neighbors to achieve civic equality of treatment and betterment of opportunity for self-improvement."

While it's understandable that there should be a difference of viewpoint as to the wisdom of participation by the clergy in public demonstrations, there has been much discussion among the clergymen as to how far such activities should extend.

There is widespread sentiment that clergymen, as individual citizens, may express themselves freely on problems of human behavior but that ministers ought not to take part in "sit-ins" or "lie-ins" or in any mass protests which can incite violence.

It's apparent that many of the younger clergymen are taking the position that, since the objective is worthy, any method used to achieve it is permissible, whereas the clergymen of more mature years, irrespective of their sectarian affiliations, are arguing that clergymen have the same obligation as do other citizens to obey the law.

Letters To The Editor

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

I read the letter in Thursday's Review from the woman whose beagle dog was killed by a hit-and-run driver.

I sympathize with her, because I know how heart-breaking the loss of a pet can be. But I want to point out that absolutely no dogs would be killed on the highways if their owners would observe the state law which requires the animals to be tied or confined at all times.

In this way, you not only observe the law but you assure that your dog is not in mischief or danger.

Certainly if all dogs were tied I would not continue to receive all the complaints of attacks on children, newsboys, mailmen and other persons, as well as upon other animals and fowls. There would be many fewer complaints of roving dogs upsetting garbage cans, destroying lawns and shrubbery and disturbing people with their barking.

And we would not have the frequent instances of motorists being injured by swerving their cars to avoid striking dogs on the streets and highways.

It is not the fault of the dogs that they run loose. The responsibility lies with the owners, who are not observing the law. And I do not feel it is entirely the fault of a motorist when a dog is killed on the highway, because dogs have no right to be there.

Next time you see a dog lying dead along a highway, remember that it is probably his owner's fault that he lost his life. It would eliminate many heartbreaks if everyone would observe the state law.

Odd Thing About Education

It's time for school again.

Education is the most ambitious project in the United States, other than national defense. Also the costliest.

But unlike national defense, everybody is for education, mostly with enthusiasm. Even its knockers admit we can't get along without it.

It's an odd thing about education, though. Everybody talks about it, supports it and is happy about the idea, yet scarcely anyone can agree what it should be, least of all educators, themselves.

Because educators do not have a solid front, this gives everybody else a chance to tee off at will, still further confusing the open-ended question of what education is and should be.

Thus, at any given moment the whole matter of education is under violent and often inexpert criticism.

Americans traditionally feel free to be backseat drivers about government, utilities, newspapers, restaurants, public roads and other assorted matters of which they know little and speak much.

But their favorite target for pointed improvements is education. Rare indeed is the student, parent, taxpayer or critic-at-large who is not willing to pass resounding judgment on schools, teachers and what the rising generation is learning in the classroom.

IT ALL COMES down to this:

Beyond reading, writing and arithmetic —and there is no agreement even on these fundamentals—education is a process of assimilating knowledge, with no mental holds barred.

A student can range from completely free inquiry to restricted inquiry.

He can seek education in the most famous schools, or get it fly-by-night on his own time in a public library.

But if his aim in life is to be educated—if he is a bona fide student at heart—he cannot be denied learning.

On the other hand, if his aim is to resist education, the best school on earth can avail nothing against his indifference.

The one indispensable ingredient in education is incentive to learn.

Incentive can overcome even the obstacle of mental retardation.

Nothing known to teachers, administrators, parents and the vast host of critics who speak freely because they are unhampered by knowledge of the subject can overcome indifference.

THE DARKEST, toughest mystery of education is why so many young people who are having it handed to them on a platter strike it away and destroy their chance to learn.

Many actually go to war with their teachers, fighting education as if it was a mortal enemy, when in truth it is their only chance to survive in a society with no place for the uneducated.

It's time for school again.

Here we go, on another great adventure into the unknown but, at the same time, the infinitely knowable!

Viet Nam Truce Within Reach

In the magnifying-glass scrutiny of U.S. proposals for negotiating a truce in Viet Nam, one detail looms larger than all the rest.

The United States wants the people of South Viet Nam to choose their own government.

It does not say what kind of government they must choose, only that it must be a government of their own choice.

Any cease-fire agreement that guaranteed a free election would satisfy Washington. There apparently are no other requirements for a cease-fire that could not be satisfied if channels of communication could be cleared between Washington and Hanoi.

Washington would be willing to recognize spokesmen for the Viet Cong and abandon its earlier insistence that North Viet Nam alone was responsible for the war.

It would be willing to forget its earlier insistence on withdrawal of Viet Cong forces in return for the right to keep U.S. troops in South Viet Nam until a cease-fire had been stabilized.

It would be willing to accept a pledge of amnesty for its friends in South Viet nam in return for a South Vietnamese pledge of amnesty for that republic's enemies.

This could be the way out of a war that could be won only at the cost of destroying most of what supposedly was being saved.

Peace rumors have been breaking out. They were given credence by Sen. Mansfield of Montana, the administration's leader in the upper house.

Sen. Mansfield, speaking for the Johnson administration, outlined a truce stand close enough to Hanoi's own specifications to justify hope that a cease-fire is now regarded by the United States and North Viet Nam as within reach.

Differences Of Opinion

One of our readers recently disagreed strongly with an opinion on this page. That was nothing new. It happens all the time.

That's why we have editorials. They express opinions. People who read them agree, disagree, or have no opinion of their own. But the purpose of editorials is to provoke thought, not win unanimous agreement.

Our disagreeing reader made some remarks that sound to us as if he may never have thought about a basic precept of a free press.

It is the right to disagree — the reader's right as well as the writer's right. Freedom of press, it must be remembered, is guaranteed to everybody.

It is guaranteed to our disagreeing reader, just like freedom of speech.

We consider it a privilege to publish letters that disagree with us, provided they are written and signed in good faith.

We would be flabbergasted if everybody agreed with us. We don't expect it.

But we wish all our readers would understand that we place as high a value on contrary opinion as on agreement.

It isn't what people think that matters in the final analysis. In a free society, what matters is whether people think.

If what we say stimulates thinking, whether a reader agrees or disagrees with it, we have made our point.

Our reader asks in his missive:

"Did you ever stop to think how a lot of people feel about you?"

Yes. We think about it. We figure if about half of them agree and the other half disagree, with due allowance for those who have no opinion, we're hitting par for the course.

Maybe Next Year

By Truman Twill

When we strike oil, we will travel.

Having traveled just enough to know what we want to do and see, if we ever do strike oil, I have prepared specifications.

When we are traveling — my traveling companion and I — there will be only two pieces of luggage.

They will be large enough to carry what we need, but not so large I cannot cope with them under my own steam. Coping with luggage is now compulsory for travelers.

Collapsible boxes suitable for mailing home dirty clothes are among the specifications. Meanwhile a loyal functionary at home will be setting up caches of clean clothes at advanced stops of the itinerary.

This will be necessary only when the expedition is hitting the trail. Trail-hitting will not be the standing order of procedure, however.

No sir.

When we strike oil, we will see the world — one month at every point of major interest.

Traveling will be pursuant only to getting there; it will never be an end in itself.

I cannot understand how people cram kids, dogs, themselves, potato chips, cushions, blankets and miscellaneous camping equipment into autos and drive for days at a time without regular meals and proper rest.

I cannot understand how women can maintain their dignity in hair curlers, rumpled clothes and cracker crumbs while suffering from chronic highway fatigue and roadside snacks.

Nor can I understand how a man sustains morale while heading up the equivalent of a camel caravan across the Sahara desert, worrying about the traveling equipment and whether he will bring the safari safely to camp before nightfall.

Automobiles are unexcelled for short hauls.

So are buses.

Trains for middle hauls.

Airplanes for distance.

Nuts to ships.

Best of all is being there — not getting there.

When we strike oil, we will stay a month at all the places we would like to go back to see and all the places we want to see.

This will include London, Edinburgh, Canberra, Vancouver, New Orleans, Banff, Hongkong, Tokyo, Rome, Alexandria, Athens, Madrid, Hanover N. H., St. Augustine — just to name 14.

It will take a lot of oil.

So much for Vacation 1965.

Who knows what next year will be like. Maybe the moon, by rocket. Whoosh.

Horseshoes Next?

It is comforting to know that the U.S. House of Representatives is looking out for our best interests, almost to a man.

With only four dissenting votes, the House has punched through a bill to create a three-member federal boxing commission, members of which would rake in a purse of $26,000 a year while performing such tasks as issuing licenses and regulating television and radio broadcasts of fights which it decides are not in the public interest.

There is no question that boxing has fallen into national disgrace. The two-step, one-punch Clay-Liston fiasco didn't exactly enhance the name of the game.

But if it takes another band of bureaucrats to salvage the sport, why bother? Besides, where does this federal control stop? If Congress had enough idle time on its hands to dream this one up, watch out for the slow season next year.

You may wind up taking out a federal license to pitch horseshoes.

That Chip On His Shoulder

It's 'Propaganda Or Pumpernickel'

By Victor Riesel

The Russians will have to choose between "propaganda and pumpernickel."

That's how the peppery Teddy Gleason, leader of 60,000 Longshoremen put it when we talked dockside of reports that the Soviet government was not purchasing U.S. wheat and other grains because of American labor's insistence that half the shipments go in American flag vessels.

Victor Riesel

There was nothing belligerent in the voice of the bantam president of the International Longshoremen's Association (ILA).

Quietly Gleason said it would take the Marines to get grain loaded onto any ship, American or foreign, in Atlantic or Gulf Coast ports, if U.S. shippers did not get half the business.

Unless Gleason's followers load that grain, it won't get into the cargo holds. If "the Marines" handle it, the American ships won't sail because their crews belong to Paul Hall's militant Seafarers, or the National Maritime Union. If the government mans the ship, the Marine Engineers will strike again.

THEY'RE ALL bound up in the Joint Maritime Labor Committee, headed by Gleason.

"We will stand by the '50-50' agreement we made with President Johnson in February 1964 and we believe he will not pressure us into abandoning it," explained Gleason.

"The word from the wheat bowl is that the Russians are not buying from us because American shipping costs are too high. True, the American shipping costs are some 6½ per cent above the fees of the slave labor foreign flagships. But the Russians are spending a hundred times that 6½ per cent on subversive propaganda against us; and on guns, missiles and ground weapons for North Viet Nam; and a million dollars a day to bolster Fidel Castro.

"Furthermore, to our definite knowledge, some of the wheat, which other nations are selling to the Soviets, is being transferred to Cuba and the Viet Cong now."

GLEASON and those of his colleagues such as the juggernaut Paul Hall would prefer that all grain shipments cease. But they're willing to move the cargoes as long as President Johnson requests it.

These anti-Communist labor men assert the Soviet government is not really concerned with saving the money involved. The unionists firmly believe that the Russian propagandists just don't want their people to see American flag vessels heave into Red ports.

Two years ago, when U.S. flag ships delivered grain to Odessa and other Black Sea ports, the Russian populace hailed American sailors and treated them like heroes. This, the Moscow government, now seeking the Viet Cong and Ho Chi Minh forces as allies, considers a hazard to its Asian alliances.

CERTAINLY, says Gleason and Hall, the Russians don't want it to appear that their agricultural, food processing and delivery systems have collapsed—and that they turn to "imperialist" America for rescue.

Gleason summed it up by saying the choice was between accepting the viewpoint either of Sen. George McGovern, D-S.D., or Rep. Paul Findley, R-Ill., McGovern has said: "From every standpoint—economic, political and moral — it makes sense for us to sell surplus wheat to dollar customers even when we disagree on idealogy."

Findley says: "To me it is incredible to even contemplate expanded trade with the government which provides North Viet Nam with the surface-to-air missiles which already have sent several U.S. airmen to their graves."

The working men of the waterfront, tough but not cynical, prefer Findley's position.

THE WATERFRONT unions, which have not heard from President Johnson on the matter, have had their own research departments analyze the extra costs to the Soviets of shipping half of any wheat purchases in American freighters. This comes to a little more than $6 million on $100 million grain sale.

The Joint Maritime Labor Committee just does not believe that the $6 million actually makes a substantive difference to the U.S.S.R. The amount is "not very much more than the Soviets are spending every six months or so on bombs and terror in Venezuela, Bolivia and Columbia," one waterfront labor man asserted.

At this point, Teddy Gleason gave the Russians the propaganda or pumpernickel ultimatum.

Persuasive Propagandist

By Richard Spong

Mme. Chiang Kai-Shek early in her present visit to the United States has renewed her role of persuasive propagandist for Nationalist China's cause. Communist China's atomic weapons development, Mme. Chiang said at La Guardia airport on Aug. 29, must be halted at once. "We should try to cut out the cancer before it permeates any further."

The first lady of Taiwan is a symbol of the hope and menace of Nationalist China. Americans are ambivalent about the Nationalists. Some view them as craggy patriots, intent only on returning to the mainland that was euchered away from them.

Others, as A. M. Rosenthal put it in the New York Times a few years back, see only "a gang of political failures, who lost their homeland through their own corruption and cruelty, and now are cynically and brutally holding on to the remnant of power, perpetually stirring up crises to cover their weakness and their rejection by their own people."

EITHER VIEW is extreme, as Rosenthal was suggesting. It's said that for the 2 million who fled with Chiang Kai-Shek from the mainland in 1949 he is the symbol of hope of return. Many of the remaining 9 million Chinese on Taiwan are said to wish that he would hurry up and go.

The president and the vice president of Nationalist China are elected for a six-year term by the National Assembly. The Assembly was continued in office in Taiwan in 1954 when the Republic's High Court found the necessary constitutional authority. They re-elected Chiang then and again six years later.

At that time the Assembly suspended the operation of a provision in the constitution which permits the president and vice president to serve only two successive terms in office.

THE GENERALISSIMO married Mayling Soong, daughter of well-to-do Shanghai Christians, in 1927. He promptly became a devout Methodist.

Now 67, the Phi Beta Kappa Wellesley graduate fought loyally at Chiang's side against the Japanese in World War II and the Communists thereafter. She describes herself in Who's Who as a "Chinese sociologist," and indeed she has been in the forefront of most of her nation's social welfare activity.

The Chiang regime on Taiwan has been spectacularly successful in industrial growth and land reform. The U.S. State Department announced in May 1964 that U.S. economic assistance would end in June 1965 because of the "healthy economic growth of Nationalist China."

GRIN AND BEAR IT — By George Lichty

Riots Vs. Justice

By David Lawrence

Doctrine Of Law Violation Questioned

It isn't often that a clergyman also has had a successful career as a government lawyer and in private business. Ministers have rarely had the opportunity tp study the law of the land as was the experience of Rev. Robert B. Watts, pastor of an Episcopal church in La Jolla, Calif.

David Lawrence

A sermon delivered by the Rev. Watts since the Los Angeles riots deplores the doctrine that it is all right to disobey an unjust law. The latter idea, enunciated by the Rev. Martin Luther King Jr., Negro leader, has aroused considerable objection not only among clergymen but among laymen as well throughout the country.

Rev. Watts was graduated from Yale Law School where he was editor of The Yale Law Journal. He practiced law in Chicago and New Yorkand was chief assistant U.S. attorney in New York City for several years and served also as special assistant to the attorney general of the United States.

He was with the National Labor Relations Board for nine years — from 1934 to 1943. For three of these he was general counsel of the board and argued many of its cases in the Supreme Court of the United States.

HE SERVED also in business as vice president and general counsel of Consolidated Vultee Aircraft Corp. and later with General Dynamics Corp. He was ordained in 1958 in the Episcopal Diocese of Los Angeles.

Rev. Watts, in his recent sermon, said:

"There has been advanced by various philosophical followers of the Rev. Martin Luther King Jr., one of the most extraordinary suggestions ever made in Anglo-Saxon or American legal annals. As a mixture of sophistry and soft-headedness, brewed by non-legal or corroded legal minds, I assert that this suggestion has spawned the present wave of destruction now sweeping the country.

"In brief, this proposed doctrine is that if any individual citizen or group of citizens, after meditation, come to the conclusion that any law is unjust; and further conclude that if apprehended he or they are willing to accept the penalty imposed for violation of the law — then it becomes morally justifiable to break the law openly and notoriously.

"Of course the worst thing about this doctrine is that there are no dividing lines in it. If it's valid for a small violation, it applies equally to a more serious one. Once you start this approach there is no stopping. It's like a roller coaster which nears the top of the track. Once you push it over a little bit, it plunges down all the way.

"THE AMAZING THING is that many clergy of this church, including both priests and bishops, have openly and officially accepted this doctrine. Episcopal clergymen have received written expressions of this doctine for their guidance. And large numbers of clergy of this and other communions have been sent, or have gone on their own volition, to Southern areas for the sole purpose of expressing racial concerns by open law defiance pursuant to this new assertion of moral right.

"Finally, as sorely distressed Christians we see instance after instance of reluctance on the part of elected officials to meet lawlessness quickly and firmly lest there be an adverse effect upon their personal political careers at the ballot box. Thank God, not all our officials are of this character, but too many are."

Rev. Watts declared that it ought to be perfectly clear that no person, "however exalted he may be or regard himself, has the right to say that what was wrong before becomes morally right if the acting party is willing to be punished if caught."

He pointed out that clergymen have a duty not only to support the Constitution and laws of the land but to reject the doctrine "of a morally justified civil disobedience."

HE URGED that there be no compromise with lawlessness, and he added that Christians should "seek by all lawful and proper means to help our neighbors to achieve civic equality of treatment and betterment of opportunity for self-improvement."

While it's understandable that there should be a difference of viewpoint as to the wisdom of participation by the clergy in public demonstrations, there has been much discussion among the clergymen as to how far such activities should extend.

There is widespread sentiment that clergymen, as individual citizens, may express themselves freely on problems of human behavior but that ministers ought not to take part in "sit-ins" or "lie-ins" or in any mass protests which can incite violence.

It's apparent that many of the younger clergymen are taking the position that, since the objective is worthy, any method used to achieve it is permissible, whereas the clergymen of more mature years, irrespective of their sectarian affiliations, are arguing that clergymen have the same obligation as do other citizens to obey the law.

Why not let Graham and Wagner artists and craftsmen help you plan and build a worthy family Memorial? We have a complete selection of beautifully designed Monuments on display in our newly-stocked showrooms, where you can shop in comfort and privacy. By buying locally, if for any reason some dissatisfaction should arise, you know whom to contact. If later, a death date or additional inscription is needed, we will gladly oblige. For reasons of economy or because of cemetery restrictions you may require one of the many bronze Markers, which we have on display. If you live beyond a visit, we offer home counsel or transportation. We suggest you make your selection now, to insure installation, before winter visits the cemetery. Inspiration to the Living!
JUST AS THE HOUSE is an earthly home for the living, the Monument becomes the earthly "home" of the departed, their personalities reflected by the sentiments expressed thereon. Why not let Graham and Wagner artists and craftsmen help you plan and build a worthy family Memorial? We have a complete selection of beautifully designed Monuments on display in our newly-stocked showrooms, where you can shop in comfort and privacy. By buying locally, if for any reason some dissatisfaction should arise, you know whom to contact. If later, a death date or additional inscription is needed, we will gladly oblige. For reasons of economy or because of cemetery restrictions you may require one of the many bronze Markers, which we have on display. If you live beyond a visit, we offer home counsel or transportation. We suggest you make your selection now, to insure installation, before winter visits the cemetery. A simple act of attention now, can transform a barren plot to one of beauty . . . an inspiration to the living.

NIGHT and DAY

In mills and factories across the country, they never stop working. By night as well as by day, the wheels of commerce grind out the goods we need as a nation.

It's a twenty-four hour job, this business of production, and it's a vital job — to you, your family, your town, our whole country. Like most vital jobs, it can't be stopped.

Faith is a vital job, too. It isn't simply something that God gives you, free of charge, on Christmas and at Easter. You have to work for real faith. You have to earn it. You have to keep at it.

Fortunately, to help you gain and sustain this vital faith, you have the Church to guide you. Start attending every Sunday and there absorb the wonders of God's teachings.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL • ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

REV. DONALD L. RETTGER, Pastor

In mills and factories across the country, they never stop working. By night as well as by day, the wheels of commerce grind out the goods we need as a nation.

It's a twenty-four hour job, this business of production, and it's a vital job — to you, your family, your town, our whole country. Like most vital jobs, it can't be stopped.

Faith is a vital job, too. It isn't simply something that God gives you, free of charge, on Christmas and at Easter. You have to work for real faith. You have to earn it. You have to keep at it.

Fortunately, to help you gain and sustain this vital faith, you have the Church to guide you. Start attending every Sunday and there absorb the wonders of God's teachings.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL • ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Labor Day

Area Marks Holiday As Salute To Success Of Working Force

By GLENN WAIGHT

Labor Day in the Tri-State District has come to mean picnics, a drive in the country, a visit with friends and a reminder that summer's activities are ended and autumn is just around the corner.

In earlier days, the holiday was a time for parades by working men, speeches denouncing "oppressive" industrialists and a salute to the horny-handed toilers of the mills and farms.

Actually, workingmen's holidays were observed in ancient Greece when artisans and slaves marched with torches and sticks or in Europe when the Guilds turned out to honor their patron saints.

Even in early America, farmers staged merry-making at the time of the harvest, not only to honor the bounty of the Lord but to pay homage to the fruits of labor.

THE UNITED STATES, however, was the first nation in the world to establish by law a day commemorating the dignity of work and its accomplishments.

The union movement took shape shortly after the Civil War with creation of the Knights of Labor, a semi-secret organization subsequently succeeded by the energetic American Federation of Labor which held its first convention at Pittsburgh in 1881.

The idea of Labor Day as a holiday grew out of an observance by the Central Labor Union of New York in 1882. Peter J. McQuire, president of the Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners and an active leader in the Knights of Labor, had suggested the holiday to show the strength and espirit de corps of the trade and labor unions.

The New York C.L.U., after holding its first picnic and parade, settled on the first Monday in September for the holiday the following year, and unions across the nation began petitioning state legislature for a legal holiday.

Oregon was the first state to establish "Labor Day" and in 1894, Congress made the observance national.

NO LONGER IS tribute paid primarily to hard-muscled men who earn their wages by hand, for today's production force centers more upon mental than manual output.

The sledge hammer, pick and shovel have given way to the office machine, control panel, high-lift and computer.

Also, every third wage earner is a woman, thus giving a feminine cast to the old image of labor.

With more leisure time, many men and women are operating their own businesses or trades, apart from regular employment, hiring people to work for them.

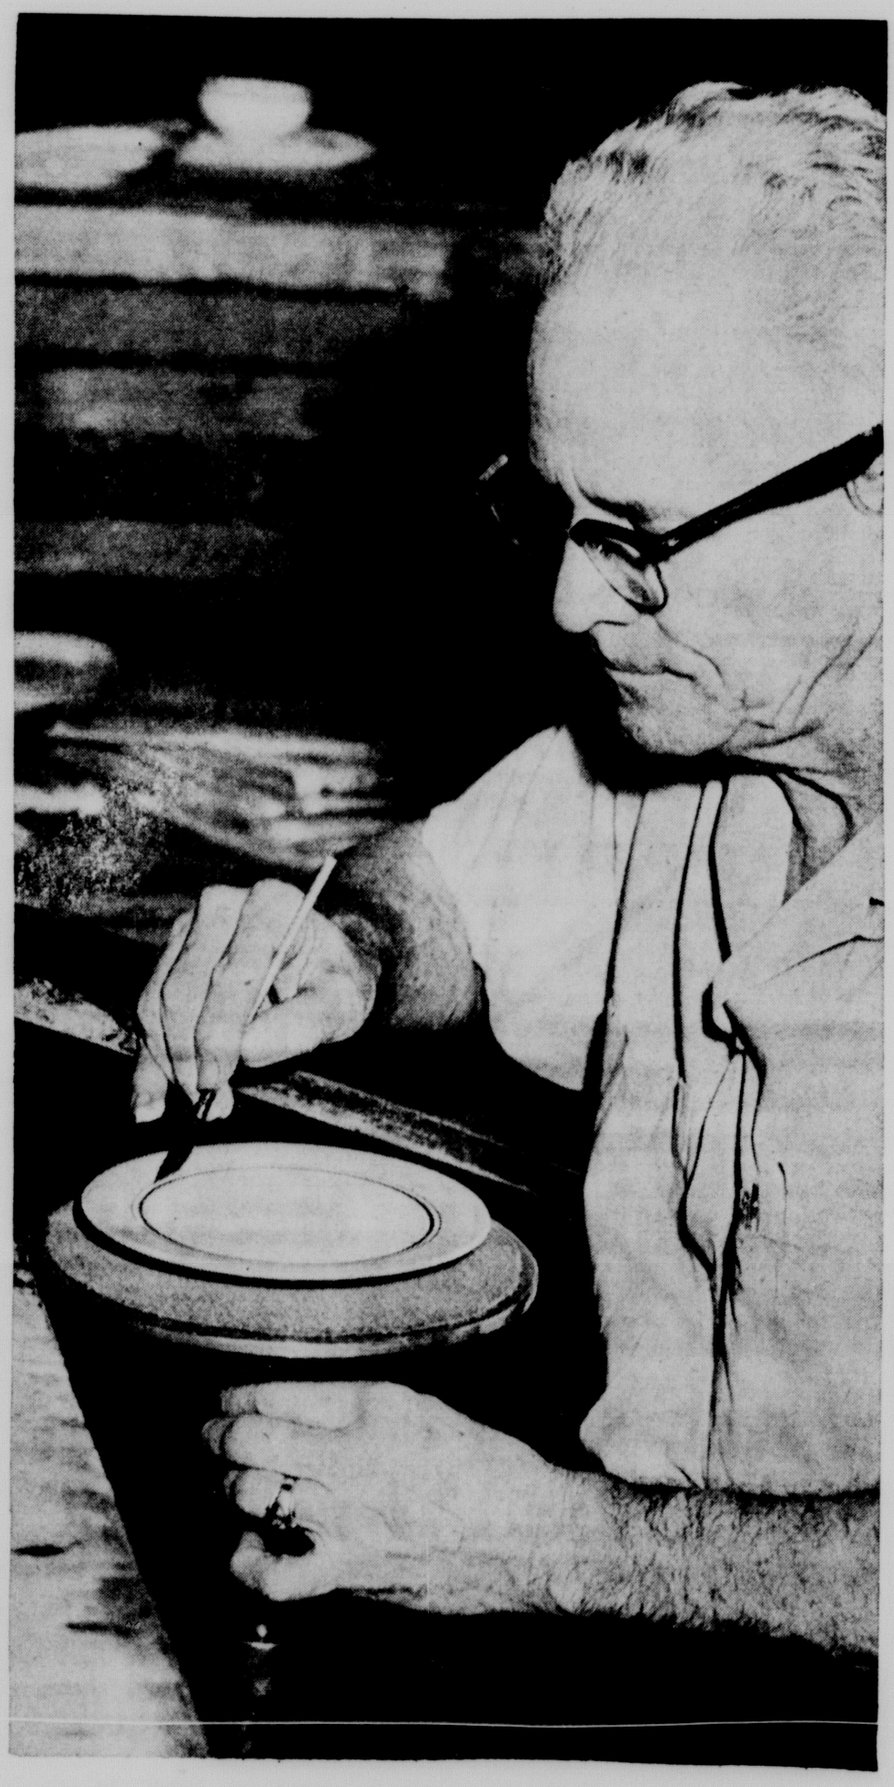
Knowledgeable labor leaders have come to understand the capitalist system, the meaning of profit and the dependency of the American economy upon efficient production and the cooperation of management and the working force.

Labor unions themselves have become employers, managers and investors in the American profit system.

At Midland, Weirton, Chester, Newell, Wellsville, East Liverpool and throughout the area where business and industry flourish, Labor Day means less of a salute to sweat and callouses, nor to the gains made by unions over the years, but to the vital role which productive effort has played and will play in the future of this district and this nation.

Agriculture remains a vital part of the area's economy, and production depends upon men like Craig Hobbs of Georgetown R. D., dumping hay at the farm of Mrs. Blanche Glenn near Georgetown.

Check data is prepared for computer processing at the First National Bank by Mrs. Penny Thomas of Avondale St., among the many women in the area's work force.



Traditions of the skilled craftsmen of the pottery industry are maintained by such men as Clarence Moore of Chester, liner at the Taylor, Smith & Taylor Co.

The Lighter Side

The great American Cliche, at once an abomination and a useful crutch....

Without it there would be few comic strips, no television situation comedies or dramas and the art of the political orator and after-dinner speaker would die overnight.

Plots of most TV shows are strung together with such an endless series of cliches that even the average 7-year-old viewer can figure out the story line and the climax after the the first three minutes.

Poppa is a bumbing dolt, led through life by the nose by Momma, although he's blissfully unware of her heavy-handed direction. He wanders into one remarkable crisis after another, but he'll be saved conveniently at the last moment by Momma, who appears 20 years younger than her spouse—just about six weeks older than her oldest offspring.

MOMMA RUNS THE FRANTIC household in a cute little Dior gown she picked up in some bargain basement for a measley $250, does household chores in high heels and never seems to ruffle a hair in her elegant coiffure, whether it's swimming the Hellespont or at the right hand of an ambassador at a state dinner in the White House.

And the standard family is equipped with an adolescent son who tinkers with vintage cars that make collectors' mouths drool, Strangely backward in the ways of informal biology, he has encounters with effervescent, nubile young things right off of Jack Warner's lot, argues with Poppa and dodges school work, but underneath he's understanding, warm and friendly.

The daughter is a wide-eyed beauty already adept at Momma's mysterious ways of handling the awkard male, but she worries about dates, prom dresses and the balance of payments crisis.

The family dog just happens to be able to walk on his hind legs, turn door knobs with his teeth, read the Wall Street Journal and play a pretty mean hand of stud poker—accomplishments common to any self-respecting mongrel whose trainer draws $1,500 a week.

TV WESTERNS ALSO FALL out of the mold in assembly-line fashion, with the good guys dressed in light clothing and the bad guys in dark garb, just in case you happened in from Mars and are unfamiliar with the standard story line.

Horses gallop through clouds of dust to head 'em off at the pass, gun fights erupt at the usual places but at improbable distances for accuracy with a sidearm and it all comes out right in the end, just before the final commercial.

How many political addresses would be made if all the cliches were outlawed tomorrow? Democratic and Republican spellbinders throughout the nation would be speechless, or reduced to a few impotent grunts, if they were required to stick to facts and do away with the flag waving, name-calling, finger-pointing innuendo and hoorah that passes for "a major policy pronouncement."

For that matter, all after-dinner speaking would be out the window, too and grateful audiences would be able to head homeward immediately after the dessert, instead of dozing through 40 minutes of platitudes that would give heartburn to a goat.

Casual sidewalk greetings would be a thing of the past, with no more cliches. What would passersby say in place of the phrases they have used for generations? "Cold enough for you?" "Did you order this rain?" "How's everyone at your place?" and just plain "How are you?" Casual acquaintances would pass each other on the street, smiling perhaps, but speechless.

THE MOON-JUNE LYRICS of popular songs would fade away and allow the instrumental parts to move into the foreground— but they're cliches also! Most business letters would be reduced to one or two sentences, if cliches were taken away.

And it would mean the end of all the timeless terms of endearment spoken between lovers, words and phrases invented by Adam and Eve and passed on unchanged through all generations since.

If cliches were outlawed, baseball announcers would be silenced and sports writers would be suddenly out of words.

Every generation has its own cliches, born of the time and the circumstances. Immediately after the Civil War, there was Horace Greeley's "Go West, Young Man," and the "rags to riches" theme of Horatio Alger, which everyone in that naive time accepted as Gospel.

IN WORLD WAR II, the favorite cliche foresaw a brave new world in which everthing except crown jewels would be fabricated of plastic, and miracle drugs would wipe disease and suffering from the earth.

Now we have the cold war, escalation, eyeball-to-eyeball and confrontation.

The word cliche itself has been a cliche for many years. It was borrowed from tthe French language, in which to clicher is to stereotype—to reproduce printed matter endlessly off a master plate.

And last of all, there's this about cliches: Once upon a time, today's cliche was a bright new idea. But it was so bright and so new that it was adopted by millions and repeated ad nauseum.

So today's brilliant quip may well be tomorrow's bromide.

'I Don't Have Much Time For Games.'

You And The Law

Alice and Zeke had a whirlwind romance. Alice really didn't know too much about her new husband, except that she was certain he was her "knight in shining armor."

Unfortunately, Zeke's armor was a little rusty. Specifically, he had neglected to tell Alice that he was still legally married and his other wife lived in another part of town. When Alice discovered the horrible truth, she wanted out of the marriage—fast. Because of the circumstances, Alice asked her attorney to have the marriage annulled.

THE ANNULMENT differs from a divorce in that a court decree holds that the marriage was never valid from its beginning. It must be founded on a cause which existed at the time of the marriage.

Ohio recently has enacted an annulment statute which provides that either party may seek to have the marriage annulled on any of the following grounds:

1.—That the party in whose behalf it is sought to have the marriage annulled was under the age at which persons may be joined in marriage as established by section 3101.01 of the Revised Code, unless after attaining such age such party cohabited with the other as husband or wife.

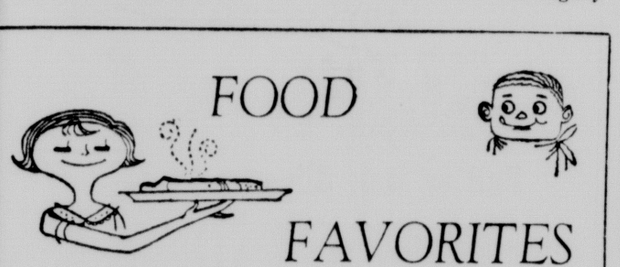
2. — That the former husband or wife of either party was living and the marriage with such former husband or wife was then and still is in force.

3. — That either party had been adjudicated to be mentally incompetent, unless such party after being restored to competency cohabited with the other as husband or wife.

4. — That the consent of either party was obtained by fraud, unless such party afterwards, with full knowledge of the facts constituting the fraud, cohabited with the other as husband or wife.

5. — That the consent of the marriage of either party was obtained by force, unless such party afterwards cohabited with the other as husband or wife.

6. — That the marriage between the parties was never consummated although otherwise valid.



Mrs. Louise Van Fossen of St. Clair Ave. submits this pie recipe made with a nut-flavored crust.

Almond Crust
Cherry Cream Pie

Crust: Add ½ cup slivered almonds or finely chopped pecans to a pastry shell recipe. Prick sides and bottom. Bake and cool.

Filling: 1 15 oz. can sweetened condensed milk
1-3 cup lemon juice
½ tsp. almond extract
½ tsp. vanilla
½ cup whipping cream, whipped

Mix the first four ingredients and stir until mixture thickens. Fold in whipped cream and spoon into cooled crust. Then spread ½ can cherry pie filling over top. Chill overnight. Other prepared fillings may be used.

Tri-State Tour Tips

Marietta, home of the first government in the Northwest Territory, is a city of historic interest as well as natural beauty.

The city, located at the junction of the Muskingum and Ohio Rivers, was settled in 1788 by 48 pioneers under the leadership of Rufus Putnam. It was named for Marie Antionette, queen of France.

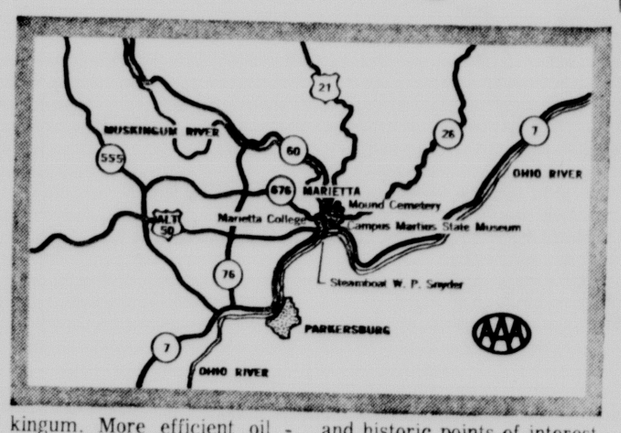
Of special interest is the Campus Martius Museum, on the site of an old fortification which housed many residents until the end of the Indian Wars in 1795. Administered by the Ohio Historical Society, the museum includes exhibits which portray life in the frontier community.

In addition to memorabilia of the early families living in Marietta, the museum also includes relics of the Blennerhassetts who lived from 1798 to 1806 on an island a few miles downstream.

Preserved in the museum are the home of Rufus Putnam, built in 1788, and the old Land Office, also built by Putnam.

Since the first settlers came by way of the Ohio River, the Museum offers a display of scale models and mementos of river boats, past and present.

The stern-wheeler, "W. P. Snyder, Jr.," has been moored in the Muskingum River since 1955 as a public museum and a memorial to the proud fleet of steamboats which for many years carried passengers and freight over both the Ohio and the Muskingum. More efficient oil-powered diesel engines now carry giant tows past Marietta.



A marked city tour guides motorists to many scenic and historic points of interest.

The Columbiana County Motor Club suggests this routing to the tour area: Follow Route 7 down the Ohio River to Marietta.

Stamps In The News

New U.S. issues dominate the philatelic news this week.

The American Painting commemorative stamp scheduled for issuance in Washington Sept. 7, depicts a little girl in a lace bonnet. The new 5-cent stamp is based on a portion of a family group painted in 1776 by John Singleton Copley, often termed America's first great artist. Elizabeth Clark Copley, his daughter, is the girl on the stamp.

The Copley stamp is the fifth in the American Painting series which reproduces the work of leading American artists of the past. Earlier stamps in the series honored Frederick Remington, Winslow Homer, John James Audubon and Charles M. Russell.

Collectors desiring first-day cancellations may send addressed envelopes, together with remittance to cover the cost of the stamps to be affixed, to the Postmaster, Washington, D. C. 20013. The envelope to the Postmaster should be endorsed "First Day Covers 5c American Painting Stamp" and must be postmarked no later than Sept. 17.

G.I. Surprise

FT. KNOX, Ky. — When Pvt. James Keyser stepped from the bus at Ft. Knox, he began wondering what he had done.

Waiting to greet him was the commanding general, who presented the Chicago soldier with a cake and a fancy picture album.

Keyser was the 500,000th soldier to pass through the reception center since its activation in October 1956.

Served Himself

PRETTY PRAIRIE, Kan. — Jim Krehbiel drove his tractor for a half-day before noticing a glass air cleaner bowl on the diesel engine.

It was a check for $1, noting three gallons of diesel fuel had been taken, and signed by Dean Anthony, Attica, Kan.

Krehbiel checked with Mrs. Anthony who said "That sounds like something Dean would do."

Her husband was driving a truck load of melons to Canada at the time and she speculated he ran low on fuel.

You And The Law

Alice and Zeke had a whirlwind romance. Alice really didn't know too much about her new husband, except that she was certain he was her "knight in shining armor."

Unfortunately, Zeke's armor was a little rusty. Specifically, he had neglected to tell Alice that he was still legally married and his other wife lived in another part of town. When Alice discovered the horrible truth, she wanted out of the marriage—fast. Because of the circumstances, Alice asked her attorney to have the marriage annulled.

THE ANNULMENT differs from a divorce in that a court decree holds that the marriage was never valid from its beginning. It must be founded on a cause which existed at the time of the marriage.

Ohio recently has enacted an annulment statute which provides that either party may seek to have the marriage annulled on any of the following grounds:

1.—That the party in whose behalf it is sought to have the marriage annulled was under the age at which persons may be joined in marriage as established by section 3101.01 of the Revised Code, unless after attaining such age such party cohabited with the other as husband or wife.

2. — That the former husband or wife of either party was living and the marriage with such former husband or wife was then and still is in force.

3. — That either party had been adjudicated to be mentally incompetent, unless such party after being restored to competency cohabited with the other as husband or wife.

4. — That the consent of either party was obtained by fraud, unless such party afterwards, with full knowledge of the facts constituting the fraud, cohabited with the other as husband or wife.

5. — That the consent of the marriage of either party was obtained by force, unless such party afterwards cohabited with the other as husband or wife.

6. — That the marriage between the parties was never consummated although otherwise valid.

Tri-State Tour Tips

Marietta, home of the first government in the Northwest Territory, is a city of historic interest as well as natural beauty.

The city, located at the junction of the Muskingum and Ohio Rivers, was settled in 1788 by 48 pioneers under the leadership of Rufus Putnam. It was named for Marie Antionette, queen of France.

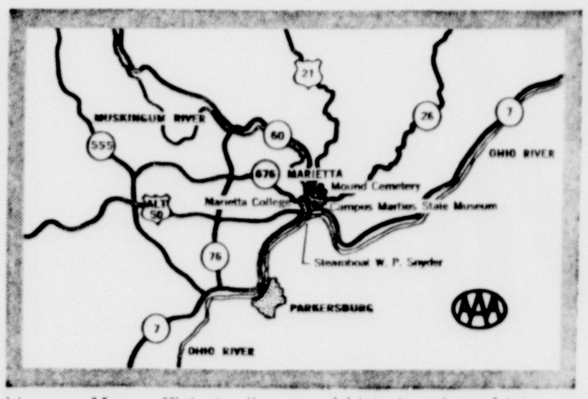
Of special interest is the Campus Martius Museum, on the site of an old fortification which housed many residents until the end of the Indian Wars in 1795. Administered by the Ohio Historical Society, the museum includes exhibits which portray life in the frontier community.

In addition to memorabilia of the early families living in Marietta, the museum also includes relics of the Blennerhassetts who lived from 1798 to 1806 on an island a few miles downstream.

Preserved in the museum are the home of Rufus Putnam, built in 1788, and the old Land Office, also built by Putnam.

Since the first settlers came by way of the Ohio River, the Museum offers a display of scale models and mementos of river boats, past and present.

The stern-wheeler, "W. P. Snyder, Jr.," has been moored in the Muskingum River since 1955 as a public museum and a memorial to the proud fleet of steamboats which for many years carried passengers and freight over both the Ohio and the Muskingum. More efficient oil-powered diesel engines now carry giant tows past Marietta.



A marked city tour guides motorists to many scenic and historic points of interest.

The Columbiana County Motor Club suggests this routing to the tour area: Follow Route 7 down the Ohio River to Marietta.

Stamps In The News

New U.S. issues dominate the philatelic news this week.

The American Painting commemorative stamp scheduled for issuance in Washington Sept. 7, depicts a little girl in a lace bonnet. The new 5-cent stamp is based on a portion of a family group painted in 1776 by John Singleton Copley, often termed America's first great artist. Elizabeth Clark Copley, his daughter, is the girl on the stamp.

The Copley stamp is the fifth in the American Painting series which reproduces the work of leading American artists of the past. Earlier stamps in the series honored Frederick Remington, Winslow Homer, John James Audubon and Charles M. Russell.

Collectors desiring first-day cancellations may send addressed envelopes, together with remittance to cover the cost of the stamps to be affixed, to the Postmaster, Washington, D. C. 20013. The envelope to the Postmaster should be endorsed "First Day Covers 5c American Painting Stamp" and must be postmarked no later than Sept. 17.

G.I. Surprise

FT. KNOX, Ky. — When Pvt. James Keyser stepped from the bus at Ft. Knox, he began wondering what he had done.

Waiting to greet him was the commanding general, who presented the Chicago soldier with a cake and a fancy picture album.

Keyser was the 500,000th soldier to pass through the reception center since its activation in October 1956.

Served Himself

PRETTY PRAIRIE, Kan. — Jim Krehbiel drove his tractor for a half-day before noticing a glass air cleaner bowl on the diesel engine.

It was a check for $1, noting three gallons of diesel fuel had been taken, and signed by Dean Anthony, Attica, Kan.

Krehbiel checked with Mrs. Anthony who said "That sounds like something Dean would do."

Her husband was driving a truck load of melons to Canada at the time and she speculated he ran low on fuel.

One Of Ohio's Biggest Social Problems

Rhodes Calls For Action To Curb 'Teen' Drinking

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Gov. James A. Rhodes has called for action to curb "one of Ohio's biggest social problems"—teen-age drinking.

The governor told the state committee on teen-age drinking at a workshop here Friday that the problem can be alleviated through a broader-based youth program. He added the cooperation of parents, schools, local governments and other groups will be necessary to head off "the disastrous results that can be and are being produced."

The committee is composed of Liquor Director Donald Cook, representatives of the Health and Highway Safety Departments along with seven teen-agers who are members of a youth advisory board.

Members met to discuss an educational program to solve the problem.

Rhodes told the committee that it "has my backing and complete cooperation" for its "fine efforts." He said that youth programs at the Ohio State Fair are "just one example" to show that by increasing activities for teen-agers that the temptation of drinking can be curtailed or eliminated.

Teen-age board members suggested how state officials might go about solving the problem. Committee Chairman V. Ed Churchill of the Liquor Department said their ideas will be considered in formulating an educational program.

Youth board members are Michael Jones, Columbus; Susan Greenwalt, Castalia; Philip Brookhouse, Portsmouth; Greg Skinner, Lima; Bruce Dalrymple, Toledo, Edith Morelli, Steubenville, and Golden Hill, Hillsboro.

$3,025 Offer Accepted For Blacktop Job

Mayor George E. Willshaw and Safety - Service Director Robert E. Vodrey Friday afternoon accepted a lone bid of $3,025 for blacktop surfacing of a W. 5th St. site that will be converted to an off - street metered parking lot.

The officials, comprising the Board of Control, voted to award the contract to the Tri-State Asphalt Corp. of Martins Ferry and East Liverpool. The surface will be applied to the former Hazel Laughlin property, which the city acquired several months ago. Two frame homes which occupied the site have been razed, the first step toward converting the lot to parking.

Tri-State's bid covers surfacing of 863 square yards. The firm will do the fine grading, install a six - inch slag base, apply a prime or "tack" coat and then lay an asphalt surface 2½ inches thick.

The lot will provide spaces for 22 autos. The cost of the purchase and preparation will be retired by meter revenues.

Engineer George S. Bloomgren said the lot may be ready for surfacing within a week. A bulldozer will be used to fill the basement areas of the razed homes and perform the rough grading before the paving contractor moves in.

The offer was submitted by Francis Hamilton, Tri - State's sales engineer.

The city officials also queried Hamilton on the date his firm expects to start work on a State Highway Department contract for blacktop resurfacing of Pennsylvania Ave., Elizabeth St. and Harvey Ave.

Hamilton replied he will check on the date with the firm's construction superintendent and then advise Vodrey. The city is scheduled to pay $8,000 toward the cost of the job, estimated at $50,000 in all. The highway Department opened the bids Tuesday at Columbus.

Reapportion Deadline Set

HARRISBURG, Pa. — The Pennsylvania Supreme Court Friday gave the House - Senate Conference Committee until next Thursday to come to an agreement on legislative reapportionment and to put that agreement before the House and Senate for a vote.

If not, in the words of one close associate of the tribunal, "the court is not going to fool around any longer" after having one deadline ignored by the legislature.

This may come as a shock to some members of the six-man conference committee. They had taken the rosy view today that the court merely expects some kind of progress report from the conference committee.

In 7th Congressional District

Special Primary Ordered By Rhodes For Sept. 21

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)— A special primary election will be held Sept. 21 to select candidates for the 7th Congressional District seat vacated by the death last week of U. S. Rep. Clarence J. Brown.

Gov. James A Rhodes late Friday night ordered the primary and said election of a new congressman will coincide with regular elections Nov. 2.

The 7th District is comprised of Clark, Warren, Greene, Clinton, Champaign, Logan, Madison and Union Counties.

District Republicans, meeting in Springfield Friday night, decided against endorsing a candidate to replace the veteran GOP congressman.

William J. Holland of Urbana, district state central committeeman, said the party will have "a number of excellent candidates" and the GOP leaders decided to give the voters "the right to choose the candidate they wish to represent the party in the primary election, in true Republican tradition."

Democratic leaders also withheld endorsement of a candidate at a meeting last Monday, but they said they would wait until after the governor ordered an election before reaching a final decision.

Only announced candidate so far is John Peterson, 47, former Greene County prosecutor, who took out petitions Friday to seek the Republican nomination.

Other possible Republican candidates mentioned so far include Brown's son, Clarence Brown Jr. of Urbana; Lowell Fess of Yellow Springs, secretary of the State Personnel Board of Review and a former state senator; State Reps. Charles Fry, Springfield, and Sam Landes, London, and Atty. Gen. William B. Saxbe.

Among the leading Democratic candidates are James A. Berry, Clark County prosecutor; Jerry R. Graham, who lost to Brown last year, and Joseph Sheridan of Fairborn, former Wittenberg professor who is working on his doctor's degree at American University in Washington.

Nelson Will Push Salem Road Job

The Ohio Department of Highways is not satisfied with the rate of progress on the widening project on State Route 45 south of Salem, Earl W. Nelson, deputy director of Division 11, pointed out today. He said he has taken action to force completion of the lagging project at the earliest possible date.

Nelson says "the contractor has been given every reasonable bit of leeway, but has not made enough progress to warrant further leniency. The condition of the unfinished project works a hardship on adjoining propererty owners and the traveling public and cannot be permitted to continue."

In situations such as this, the public interest is protected by performance bonds and other legal avenues by which pressure can be brought to bear. Nelson has set this machinery in motion.

Construction of the improvement was started in March under an $88,253 contract. Length of the work is 0.3 mile.

Ravenna Man Shoots Wife, Then Himself

RAVENNA, Ohio (AP) — A rubber worker who spent Thursday night in jail because he quarreled with his wife and threatened to kill her, did kill her Friday afternoon — a few hours after she paid his fine to get him out of jail, Portage County sheriff's deputies said.

Carl Lee Bolyard, 34, killed himself after he had slain his wife, Donna Jean, 30, and wounded his son, Ronald, 11, Coroner Robert A. Sybert said, ruling murder and suicide.

Deputies said they arrested Bolyard on charges of disturbing the peace because of the quarreling and threats to his wife's life. He was fined $15 and costs in Ravenna Municipal Court Friday morning.

Later, the coroner said, Bolyard and his wife drove up to their home in New Milford, about six miles southeast of here, and he stopped his car at the driveway entrance. Ronald, Bolyard's son by a previous marriage, was in the back seat.

Mrs. Bolyard reached out to open their mailbox and Bolyard shot her in the left side of the head and neck with a pistol, turned and fired a shot that wounded Ronald, and then shot himself under the chin, Dr. Sybert said.

The youngster, wounded in the neck, jumped from the car and ran to a neighbor's house for help. Ronald is in satisfactory condition at Robinson Memorial Hospital. Mrs. Bolyard also had two children by a previous marriage.

Arbitration Seen In Long-Standing Pottery Question

A ruling by Judge Frank Battisti in Cleveland District Federal Court has cleared the way for arbitration of a long-standing dispute between IBOP Local 7 and the Tiffin plant of the American Standard Sanitary Corp., the International Brotherhood of Operative Potters said today.

The IBOP said the dispute dates back to the fall of 1963 when automated equipment was installed by American Standard. The local objected to wage adjustments made by the firm and sought to have them corrected by grievance procedure and later by arbitration, the union said.

American Standard then filed an action in Toledo District Federal Court and was granted a temporary injunction barring arbitration. Following retirement of the Toledo judge, the action was transferred to the Cleveland court, where Judge Battisti dissolved the restraining order and ruled the dispute could go to arbitration.

The IBOP said the case involves over $100,000 in back wages for employes at the Tiffin plant.

In 7th Congressional District

Special Primary Ordered By Rhodes For Sept. 21

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)— A special primary election will be held Sept. 21 to select candidates for the 7th Congressional District seat vacated by the death last week of U. S. Rep. Clarence J. Brown.

Gov. James A Rhodes late Friday night ordered the primary and said election of a new congressman will coincide with regular elections Nov. 2.

The 7th District is comprised of Clark, Warren, Greene, Clinton, Champaign, Logan, Madison and Union Counties.

District Republicans, meeting in Springfield Friday night, decided against endorsing a candidate to replace the veteran GOP congressman.

William J. Holland of Urbana, district state central committeeman, said the party will have "a number of excellent candidates" and the GOP leaders decided to give the voters "the right to choose the candidate they wish to represent the party in the primary election, in true Republican tradition."

Democratic leaders also withheld endorsement of a candidate at a meeting last Monday, but they said they would wait until after the governor ordered an election before reaching a final decision.

Only announced candidate so far is John Peterson, 47, former Greene County prosecutor, who took out petitions Friday to seek the Republican nomination.

Other possible Republican candidates mentioned so far include Brown's son, Clarence Brown Jr. of Urbana; Lowell Fess of Yellow Springs, secretary of the State Personnel Board of Review and a former state senator; State Reps. Charles Fry, Springfield, and Sam Landes, London, and Atty. Gen. William B. Saxbe.

Among the leading Democratic candidates are James A. Berry, Clark County prosecutor; Jerry R. Graham, who lost to Brown last year, and Joseph Sheridan of Fairborn, former Wittenberg professor who is working on his doctor's degree at American University in Washington.

Nelson Will Push Salem Road Job

The Ohio Department of Highways is not satisfied with the rate of progress on the widening project on State Route 45 south of Salem, Earl W. Nelson, deputy director of Division 11, pointed out today. He said he has taken action to force completion of the lagging project at the earliest possible date.

Nelson says "the contractor has been given every reasonable bit of leeway, but has not made enough progress to warrant further leniency. The condition of the unfinished project works a hardship on adjoining propererty owners and the traveling public and cannot be permitted to continue."

In situations such as this, the public interest is protected by performance bonds and other legal avenues by which pressure can be brought to bear. Nelson has set this machinery in motion.

Construction of the improvement was started in March under an $88,253 contract. Length of the work is 0.3 mile.

Ravenna Man Shoots Wife, Then Himself

RAVENNA, Ohio (AP) — A rubber worker who spent Thursday night in jail because he quarreled with his wife and threatened to kill her, did kill her Friday afternoon — a few hours after she paid his fine to get him out of jail, Portage County sheriff's deputies said.

Carl Lee Bolyard, 34, killed himself after he had slain his wife, Donna Jean, 30, and wounded his son, Ronald, 11, Coroner Robert A. Sybert said, ruling murder and suicide.

Deputies said they arrested Bolyard on charges of disturbing the peace because of the quarreling and threats to his wife's life. He was fined $15 and costs in Ravenna Municipal Court Friday morning.

Later, the coroner said, Bolyard and his wife drove up to their home in New Milford, about six miles southeast of here, and he stopped his car at the driveway entrance. Ronald, Bolyard's son by a previous marriage, was in the back seat.

Mrs. Bolyard reached out to open their mailbox and Bolyard shot her in the left side of the head and neck with a pistol, turned and fired a shot that wounded Ronald, and then shot himself under the chin, Dr. Sybert said.

The youngster, wounded in the neck, jumped from the car and ran to a neighbor's house for help. Ronald is in satisfactory condition at Robinson Memorial Hospital. Mrs. Bolyard also had two children by a previous marriage.

Arbitration Seen In Long-Standing Pottery Question

A ruling by Judge Frank Battisti in Cleveland District Federal Court has cleared the way for arbitration of a long-standing dispute between IBOP Local 7 and the Tiffin plant of the American Standard Sanitary Corp., the International Brotherhood of Operative Potters said today.

The IBOP said the dispute dates back to the fall of 1963 when automated equipment was installed by American Standard. The local objected to wage adjustments made by the firm and sought to have them corrected by grievance procedure and later by arbitration, the union said.

American Standard then filed an action in Toledo District Federal Court and was granted a temporary injunction barring arbitration. Following retirement of the Toledo judge, the action was transferred to the Cleveland court, where Judge Battisti dissolved the restraining order and ruled the dispute could go to arbitration.

The IBOP said the case involves over $100,000 in back wages for employes at the Tiffin plant.

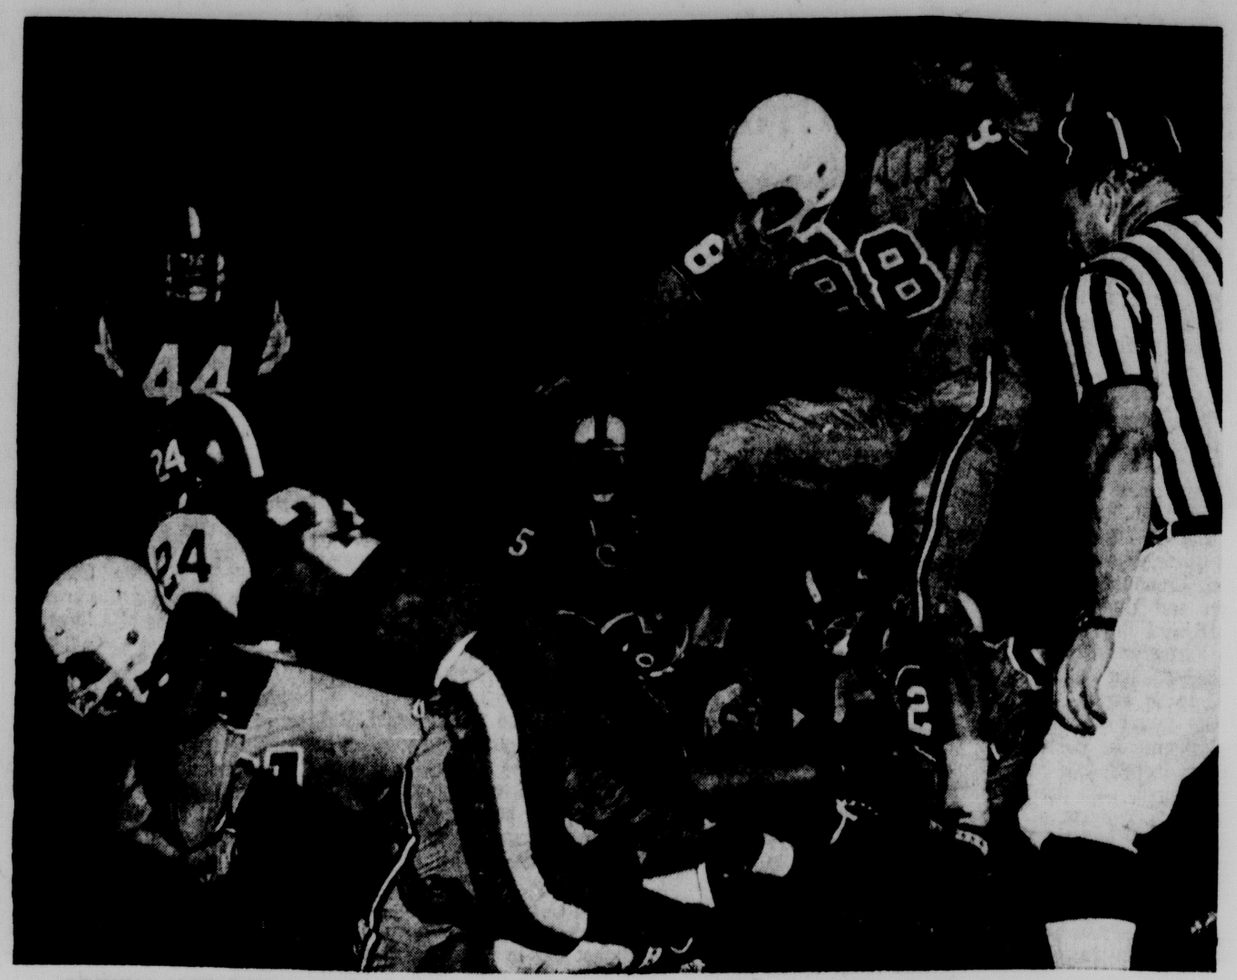
OAK GLEN'S FIRST touchdown of the season was tallied by fullback Marv Six (25) who is shown ready to crash through Weirton's Bob Gill (24) on his way to paydirt in the first quarter Friday night at Newell.



DRIVING OVER FOR the final yard to score Oak Glen's second touchdown is Tom Thayer (left corner) as Madonna's Bob Gill (24) dives on Thayer too late. Oak Glen's Dan Forsythe (83) rushes in to offer assistance.

Oak Glen Gains 13-6 Victory In Opener Over Madonna

Six, Thayer Score First Period TD's; Fumbles Plague Weirton

By BOB DUFFY
Review Sports Editor

The football takes many funny bounces, but it was bouncing right for Oak Glen Friday night as the Golden Bears opened the 1965 campaign with a 13-6 victory over Weirton Madonna.

An opening night crowd of over 4,000 turned out in perfect football weather at Newell Memorial Field.

Coach Bob Starkey's Bears scored two quick touchdowns in the first quarter then watched the game Weirton eleven fumble away scoring opportunities in the second half as Oak Glen alertly recovered three fumbles.

The contest, first of the season in the district, was less than four minutes old when power-running Marv Six crashed up the middle from 10 yards out for the Bears' initial touchdown of the new campaign.

DAN CLARK'S placement sailed wide, but the Golden Bears held a 6-0 lead with 8:20 still remaining in the first period.

Three minutes later quarterback Tom Thayer, on a sneak, bulled his way six yards for another TD. This time Clark split the uprights and Oak Glen had concluded its scoring for the night with 5:11 left in the opening quarter.

While the game had all the makings of becoming a runaway, Weirton Madonna settled down to the task and soon changed the complexion of the battle.

QUARTERBACK Paul Paolisso, a good marksman with the football, hit Bob Gill with a screen pass and the speedy halfback rambled 64 yards to paydirt for the Blue Dons only score of the game.

The touchdown came with 7:51 showing in the second quarter. A placement by Gill was blocked by Dan Clark.

Fumbles plagued Weirton throughout the evening. Oak Glen's first touchdown came when the Bears recovered on the Weirton 16.

—:—

THE SECOND tally was set up by Six who sped 36 yards from midfield to the Weirton 14 to put Oak Glen on the doorstep.

The Golden Bears threatened only once in the second half when Dan Forsythe recovered a fumble on the Weirton 28, but the opportunity fizzled out.

Madonna came up with its final opportunity to tie the game with six minutes remaining. The Blue Dons recovered a Rich Everly fumble on the Oak Glen 49. Paolisso quickly hit Chet Soplinski for a 10 - yard advance, but two plays later Weirton fumbled again and Oak Glen's 285 - pound tackle John Jordan made the timely recovery.

OAK GLEN'S opener was highlighted by the running of Six and Clark. Clark brought the crowd to its feet in the second quarter with an electrifying 60 - yard run to the Weirton 10, but a holding penalty at midfield nullified the brilliant run. Six piled up most of his yardage in the first half, but was slowed by a leg injury in the second half.

Starkey's team showed an edge in statistics with 190 yards rushing while Madonna was held to a net of 58. Paolisso hit on eight of 11 passes for 142 yards, including the 64-yard screen pass for Weirton's lone touchdown. Thayer's three completions in seven tries netted 48 yards.

Toronto, Jets Take Openers In IL Series

By The Associated Press

Regular season records may or may not mean anything in the International League playoffs.

Friday's opening games saw Columbus defeat Syracuse 6-3 while Toronto stopped Atlanta 3-1. During the regular season Columbus had a 12-9 record against Syracuse and Atlanta had the same mark against Toronto.

At Columbus, Ed Hobaugh was in near perfect form after entering the game in the fourth with Syracuse leading 3-1. Hobaugh walked one man in that inning and then retired the next 16 Chiefs in order in a hitless relief stint.

The Jets defeated Bruce Brubaker, who lost three of four regular season decisions to Columbus. A two-run fifth inning homer by Johnny Powers put the Jets ahead for good.

Toronto's Jack Lamabe hurled a three-hitter as the Maple Leafs got off to a good start against Atlanta, which had beaten them eight times in 10 previous playoff games in past years.

The Maple Leafs scored all their runs in the first inning. Atlanta scored only on Jim Beauchamp's homer in the fifth.

Braves Drop Bucs 4½ Back

Rookie Keeps LA One In Front

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Rookie Jim Lefbvre powered the Los Angeles Dodgers for the second consecutive game Friday night, driving in two runs and scoring the third in a 3-0 victory over Houston.

The triumph kept Los Angeles in first place, one game ahead of Cincinnati and two in front of San Francisco and Milwaukee.

Just the night before, Lefebvre lashed two singles and a double and drove in four runs as the Dodgers whipped Pittsburgh 7-1.

Lefebvre got the Dodgers started against the Astros in the second inning, singling across Ron Fairly, who walked and was sacrificed to second.

That was the only run of the game until the ninth. Then, with Lou Johnson aboard on a force play, Lefebvre drilled a triple to right-center field for one run and scored another on Wes Parker's squeeze bunt.

Elsewhere in the NL, Cincinnati crushed Philadelphia 16-7, Chicago edged San Francisco 5-4, Milwaukee nipped Pittsburgh 4-3 and New York beat St. Louis 6-3.

Cincinnati and Philadelphia battled to a 6-6 tie through six innings, but the Reds put the game away with three runs in the seventh and seven more in the eighth.

Jack Baldschun's bases-loaded walk to John Edwards broke the deadlock, and Tommy Helms followed with a two-run single. Edwards doubled across two runs in the eighth while Pete Rose knocked in a pair with his fourth hit, a triple.

Billy Williams powered the Cubs past San Francisco, hitting his 26th homer in the fourth inning and lashing a bases-loaded triple in the fifth. Pitcher Bob Bolin hit a two-run homer for the Giants, but Bill Faul hung on for his fifth triumph against three defeats.

Throwing errors by right fielder Roberto Clemente, after Mack Jones' line drive, and first baseman Donn Clendenon, on Ed Mathews' grounder, gave Milwaukee two eighth-inning runs and a victory over the Pirates.

Pittsburgh had taken a 3-2 lead with two runs in the fourth on singles by Willie Stargell, Clendenon and Bill Mazeroski, and Del Crandall's grounder.

Jim Hickman unloaded home runs in his first three times at bat, driving in four runs for the Mets. But reliever Nelson Briles held Hickman to a single his last time up. Bill White connected with one on for St. Louis.

EARLY IN A GAME won 16-7 by the Cincinnati Reds when runs were more important, Pete Rose is out at home when he tried to score from second on Gordy Coleman's double in the first inning Friday at Cincinnati. Pat Corrales is the catcher putting the tag on Rose. (UPI Telephoto)

Twins Take Step Closer But Champagne Flows For Athletics

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Kansas City Athletics have beaten the Minnesota Twins to the punch.

The Twins took another step toward a champagne celebration Friday night by whipping Chicago 6-4 and increasing their American League lead over the White Sox to 7½ games but the A's got there first when owner Charles Finley uncorked his long-awaited "cellar-braytion."

The occasion was a 4-1, 1-0 doubleheader sweep at Los Angeles that lifted the A's past Boston and out of the American League cellar for the first time since April.

As the players trotted into the dressing room after the game, the champagne began to flow and Finley toasted his players:

"Congratulations, on making this our happiest night of the year."

The New York Yankees knocked Boston to the bottom of the league by walloping the Red Sox 9-0, Baltimore defeated Cleveland 3-0 and Detroit clubbed Washington 10-2.

Tony Oliva and Don Mincher got the job done for the Twins. Oliva singled home two runs in the first inning. Mincher hit a two-run homer in the third and Oliva wrapped up the scoring with another two-run single in the sixth. John Romano and Ken Berry homered for the White Sox.

John Wyatt preserved both A's victories, sealing the champagne party when he took over for Lew Krausse in the eighth inning of the nightcap and put down a mild Angels' threat. Kansas City scored in the second inning on a single by Tom Reynolds and Bill Bryan's double.

Wyatt also completed a six-hit job in the opener, following Dick Joyce and Tom Aker to the mound. Ed Charles gave the A's the runs they needed with a homer and a run-producing bunt single.

Al Downing shackled the Red Sox on five hits — four of the infield variety — while the Yankees tagged Bill Monbouquette with his 17th loss against eight victories. Horace Clarke, just up from Toledo, spiced a seven-run New York explosion in the sixth inning with a pair of singles.

The Orioles capitalized on the wildness of Indians' rookie Steve Hargan, making the most of three walks and a wild pitch for four first inning runs. Brooks Robinson singled in one run, another crossed on the wild pitch and two more came home on Dick Brown's single. Wally Bunker got the victory, his first since July 18.

The Tigers got the job done with a four-homer salvo by Norm Cash, Willie Horton, Bill Freehan and Mickey Stanley. Hank Aguirre was tagged for homers by Ken McMullen and Woodie Held but got the victory for a 13-9 record.

Hail To All Favored In Sweepstakes

SALEM, N.H. (AP) — Munden Point is no Bold Venture and Ira Hanford would be the first to admit it. But the former jockey, turned trainer, is confident Munden Point will lead highly regarded Hail to All and nine other 3-year-olds home in the $250,000-added New Hampshire Sweepstakes Classic at Rockingham Park today.

"My horse is just coming into his own" said Ira, who as an apprentice jockey won the 1936 Kentucky Derby with Bold Venture. "He's the best I've had in 12 years of training. But Bold Venture probably was the best horse I ever rode."

Although Munden Point has won only three of his nine starts this year, Hanford was encouraged by the colt's third place in the 1 1-16 mile Rainbow Handicap at Rockingham last Saturday.

"He made up ground to indicate a longer distance would be more to his advantage," said Ira. "I actually think we can take it all."

Today's race is 82 feet short of 1 miles.

All would mean $183,118 of the gross purse of $281,720. Second money is $56,344, Third $28,172 and fourth $14,086.

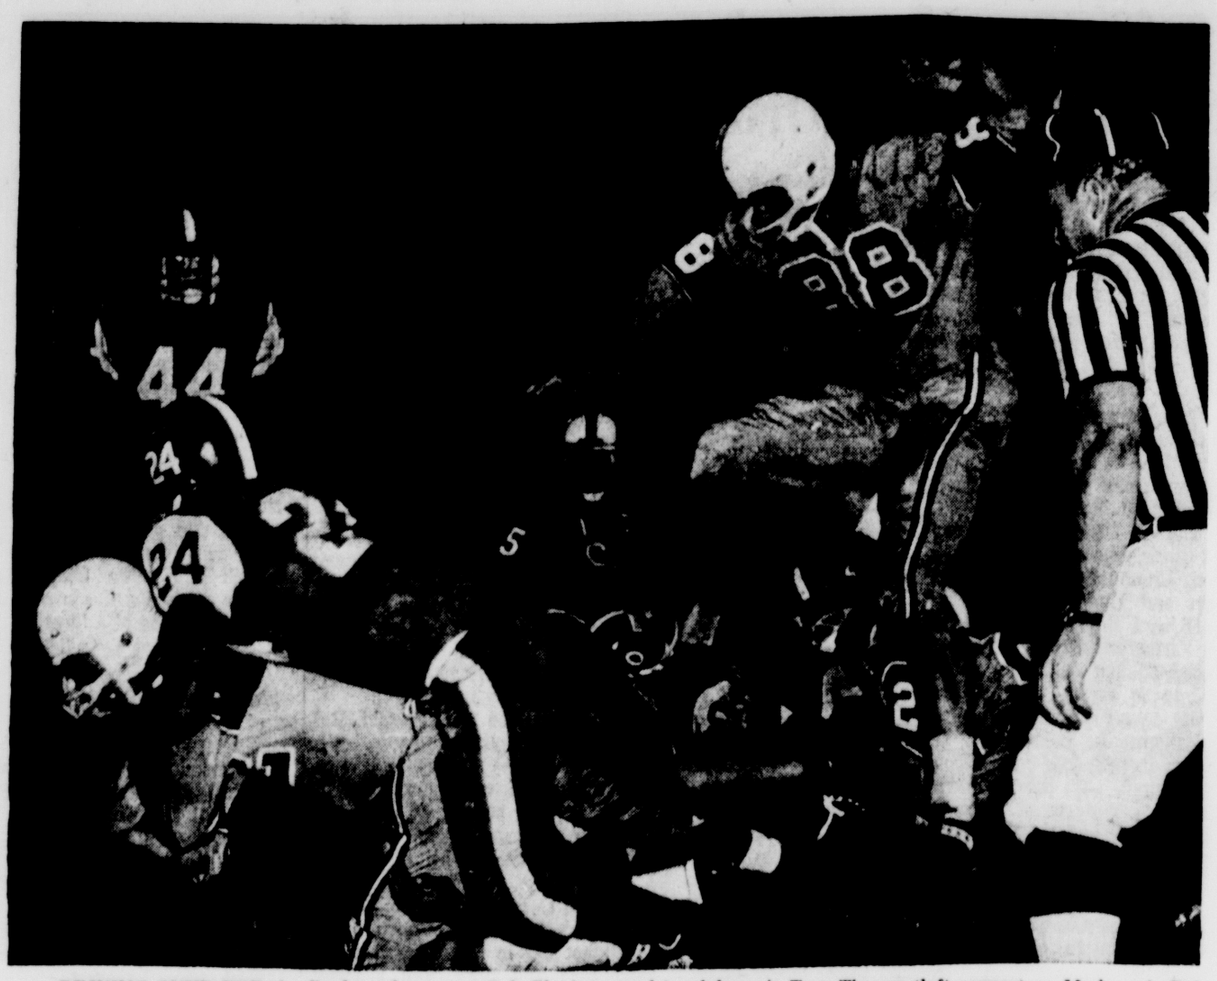
OAK GLEN'S FIRST touchdown of the season was tallied by fullback Marv Six (25) who is shown ready to crash through Weirton's Bob Gill (24) on his way to paydirt in the first quarter Friday night at Newell.



DRIVING OVER FOR the final yard to score Oak Glen's second touchdown is Tom Thayer (left corner) as Madonna's Bob Gill (24) dives on Thayer too late. Oak Glen's Dan Forsythe (83) rushes in to offer assistance.

Oak Glen Gains 13-6 Victory In Opener Over Madonna

Six, Thayer Score First Period TD's; Fumbles Plague Weirton

By BOB DUFFY
Review Sports Editor

The football takes many funny bounces, but it was bouncing right for Oak Glen Friday night as the Golden Bears opened the 1965 campaign with a 13-6 victory over Weirton Madonna.

An opening night crowd of over 4,000 turned out in perfect football weather at Newell Memorial Field.

Coach Bob Starkey's Bears scored two quick touchdowns in the first quarter then watched the game Weirton eleven fumble away scoring opportunities in the second half as Oak Glen alertly recovered three fumbles.

The contest, first of the season in the district, was less than four minutes old when power-running Marv Six crashed up the middle from 10 yards out for the Bears' initial touchdown of the new campaign.

DAN CLARK'S placement sailed wide, but the Golden Bears held a 6-0 lead with 8:20 still remaining in the first period.

Three minutes later quarterback Tom Thayer, on a sneak, bulled his way six yards for another TD. This time Clark split the uprights and Oak Glen had concluded its scoring for the night with 5:11 left in the opening quarter.

While the game had all the makings of becoming a runaway, Weirton Madonna settled down to the task and soon changed the complexion of the battle.

QUARTERBACK Paul Paolisso, a good marksman with the football, hit Bob Gill with a screen pass and the speedy halfback rambled 64 yards to paydirt for the Blue Dons only score of the game.

The touchdown came with 7:51 showing in the second quarter. A placement by Gill was blocked by Dan Clark.

Fumbles plagued Weirton throughout the evening. Oak Glen's first touchdown came when the Bears recovered on the Weirton 16.

—:—

THE SECOND tally was set up by Six who sped 36 yards from midfield to the Weirton 14 to put Oak Glen on the doorstep.

The Golden Bears threatened only once in the second half when Dan Forsythe recovered a fumble on the Weirton 28, but the opportunity fizzled out.

Madonna came up with its final opportunity to tie the game with six minutes remaining. The Blue Dons recovered a Rich Everly fumble on the Oak Glen 49. Paolisso quickly hit Chet Soplinski for a 10 - yard advance, but two plays later Weirton fumbled again and Oak Glen's 285 - pound tackle John Jordan made the timely recovery.

OAK GLEN'S opener was highlighted by the running of Six and Clark. Clark brought the crowd to its feet in the second quarter with an electrifying 60 - yard run to the Weirton 10, but a holding penalty at midfield nullified the brilliant run. Six piled up most of his yardage in the first half, but was slowed by a leg injury in the second half.

Starkey's team showed an edge in statistics with 190 yards rushing while Madonna was held to a net of 58. Paolisso hit on eight of 11 passes for 142 yards, including the 64-yard screen pass for Weirton's lone touchdown. Thayer's three completions in seven tries netted 48 yards.

Toronto, Jets Take Openers In IL Series

By The Associated Press

Regular season records may or may not mean anything in the International League playoffs.

Friday's opening games saw Columbus defeat Syracuse 6-3 while Toronto stopped Atlanta 3-1. During the regular season Columbus had a 12-9 record against Syracuse and Atlanta had the same mark against Toronto.

At Columbus, Ed Hobaugh was in near perfect form after entering the game in the fourth with Syracuse leading 3-1. Hobaugh walked one man in that inning and then retired the next 16 Chiefs in order in a hitless relief stint.

The Jets defeated Bruce Brubaker, who lost three of four regular season decisions to Columbus. A two-run fifth inning homer by Johnny Powers put the Jets ahead for good.

Toronto's Jack Lamabe hurled a three-hitter as the Maple Leafs got off to a good start against Atlanta, which had beaten them eight times in 10 previous playoff games in past years.

The Maple Leafs scored all their runs in the first inning. Atlanta scored only on Jim Beauchamp's homer in the fifth.

Rookie Keeps LA One In Front

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Rookie Jim Lefbvre powered the Los Angeles Dodgers for the second consecutive game Friday night, driving in two runs and scoring the third in a 3-0 victory over Houston.

The triumph kept Los Angeles in first place, one game ahead of Cincinnati and two in front of San Francisco and Milwaukee.

Just the night before, Lefebvre lashed two singles and a double and drove in four runs as the Dodgers whipped Pittsburgh 7-1.

Lefebvre got the Dodgers started against the Astros in the second inning, singling across Ron Fairly, who walked and was sacrificed to second.

That was the only run of the game until the ninth. Then, with Lou Johnson aboard on a force play, Lefebvre drilled a triple to right-center field for one run and scored another on Wes Parker's squeeze bunt.

Elsewhere in the NL, Cincinnati crushed Philadelphia 16-7, Chicago edged San Francisco 5-4, Milwaukee nipped Pittsburgh 4-3 and New York beat St. Louis 6-3.

Cincinnati and Philadelphia battled to a 6-6 tie through six innings, but the Reds put the game away with three runs in the seventh and seven more in the eighth.

Jack Baldschun's bases-loaded walk to John Edwards broke the deadlock, and Tommy Helms followed with a two-run single. Edwards doubled across two runs in the eighth while Pete Rose knocked in a pair with his fourth hit, a triple.

Optimistic Note Sounded By Midland Grid Coach

13 Lettermen Are Listed; Quarterback Spot Is Chief Concern

By BOB DUFFY
Review Sports Editor

The most optimistic coach in the district can be found at Midland in the person of Joe Cochran.

When Cochran says "We will finish on the winning side" you better believe him. The former Canton McKinley assistant made a similar statement last season and after Midland had lost three of its first four games, not many followers gave the Leopards much of a chance for a winning season.

Reaching midseason, the Leopards began to jell and finished strong by winning their last five games to finish with a 5-3-1 record.

The mark also gave Midland the Midwestern Athletic Conference championship and the Leopards also were very much in the running for the Class A WPIAL title.

Cochran has 13 lettermen on hand who are scheduled to go both ways but the Leopard mentor readily admits he has "quarterback problems."

—:—

REPLACING Norm Vanlier, who was one of the outstanding all around players in the district last season, is the big worry in the Midland camp.

A set of hard running backs and a stout forward wall stands to make the Leopards contenders for the WPIAL title.

Bernie Mraovic, a 160-pound senior, was the No. 2 quarterback last season but saw very little action behind Vanlier. Mraovic spent most of his time on defense.

MRAOVIC has been working at quarterback but Cochran is trying other backs at the signal calling spot.

"Mraovic is doing an adequate job and throws the ball well but there is room for improvement," Cochran said.

Steve Alston, a consistent power runner, who flashed fine form last season at halfback, is a prime candidate for the quarterback post. Alston is a 165-pound senior and could be a big surprise at that position.

Another returning halfback is Jimmy Smith, a 150-pound junior and very deceptive runner. He looms as Midland's chief threat this season.

THE THIRD regular returning to the backfield is fullback Tom Wuchina, a 180 - pound senior who developed into a consistent back last season.

Leading candidates for the backfield, and a pair of backs who rank very high with Cochran, are Dave Vanlier, 175-pound sophomore and Pierre Robinson, 150-pound junior. Both are halfbacks and Robinson was out most of the last season with injuries.

The other lettermen are linemen including guards Anthony Rosatone, 200 - pound senior and Al Monac, 190-pound senior; tackles Glen Humbert, 195-pound junior, Anthony Ciccone, 190 - pound senior and Dan Clouse, 180 - pound senior, ends Rich Mahurt, 170 - pound junior, Larry Walkers, 175 - pound junior and John Williams, 160-pound junior, while at center will be another letter winner in Martin Ciancone, 190 - pound senior.

COCHRAN shows a squad of 57 players and pointed out a host of gridders who may see some action during the campaign.

He listed seniors Jerry Kaiser, 185 - pound end and Dan Gornack, a 240 - pound tackle, who lettered as a sophomore but didn't play in his junior year. Another senior which has caught the eye of the Midland coaching staff is Dennis Bradshaw, a hard hitting 175-pound end who is trying football for the first time while Chuck Morrow and Sam Morrow are vieing for end positions.

Other junior candidates show end Stan Cronin, (170), end Jerry Kaiser (185), guards Aaron Golding (180), and Joe Noah (170), and backs Jon Samuels (155) and Dick Stoffel (170).

PROMISING sophomores are guards Chuck McShane (170) and Paul Francis (165) and Don Epley (170), tackles Bill Love (180), Harry Short (220) and Bill Haggerty (170), center Barney Newman (170), end Steve Brozic and backs Bill Crute (145) and Dan Crumiti (140).

Cochran labels his team "strong defensively" and the Leopards showed a hard hitting defensive unit a year ago when they recorded four straight shutouts at one stretch.

Looking over the schedule Cochran feels East Liverpool will be one of the strongest opponents his Leopards will meet with Beaver, Rochester, New Brighton and Braddock among the better Pennsylvania teams.

Regulars lost from last year include Vanlier, and two big tackles in Chuck Franzetta and Jim DiTullio, along with fullback Harry Monohan, guard Sam Smith and end Aaron Berry.

Assisting Cochran again this season is Rey Peduzzi, former Potter assistant and Al Colledge, a new member of the staff. Colledge is a former Northwestern High athlete who was graduated from Geneva College.

The 1965 schedule follows:

Sept. 10 — Mohawk, home
Sept. 17 — East Liverpool, away
Sept. 24 — Beaver, away
Oct. 2 — Burgettstown, away
Oct. 8 — Monaca, home
Oct. 15 — Rochester, home
Oct. 22 — Braddock, home
Oct. 29 — New Brighton, home
Nov. 5 — Freedom, away

83,000 To Attend Pro Doubleheader

CLEVELAND (AP)—On the eve of their first 1965 home exhibition, the Cleveland Browns got a word of warning from their coach that history is against their repeating as national football league champions.

"About 30 teams have had the opportunity to try and repeat as NFL champions . . . only six have been able to do it," Blanton Collier told the Cleveland Touchdown and Ad Clubs Friday. His players were on hand to hear the talk.

Collier said he wanted "more than I can tell you" for his squad to join the select group of repeaters and he thinks the 1965 Browns can do it.

"We can win if they can look through their halos and concentrate on the job as they did a year ago," the coach said. "They must remember how they got there last year—the price they had to pay.

"This squad has the ability if the concentration has not been diluted."

The Browns meet the Green Bay Packers in the second game of tonight's doubleheader—pro football's fourth annual twin bill exhibition. The game's certain to draw around 83,000 fans, including about 4,000 standees.

Kickoff for the first game, between the Detroit Lions and New York Giants, is at 6:30 EDT.

The Browns have won four exhibitions and have one left next Saturday night in Akron against the Pittsburgh Steelers. The regular season opener for Cleveland is Sept. 19 in Washington.

The Browns are favored by only a single point over the Packers, and the Lions are rated to win their first practice game triumph by six points.

Coach Allie Sherman of New York is pleased with the Giants' new quarterback, Earl Morrall, obtained from Detroit on Monday and scheduled for use tonight.

Erich Barnes, who figured in the same three-club trade, probably will see some action for Cleveland, but the former Giant veteran is not expected to start at the strongside safety. Ross Fichtner is the likely starter at this spot.

Ceramic Handicap Draws 10 Entries At Waterford

Genghis Khan, the five - year-old son of Kaled — Bara Begum who races in the silks of Pittsburgh owned Keystone Stable, has been given top weight of 124 pounds for the Ceramic Handicap to be run here on Monday.

The gelding is the winner of a race at Hialeah this year, two at Gulfstream and one at Delaware. He will be coupled with the three - year - old Jayell, who finished third in the West Virginia Derby and is being asked to carry only 116 pounds in the Ceramic.

Below 11, racing in the colors of Mickey Saffron, Youngstown sportsman and winner of the Waterford Mile on July 10, is carrying second high weight of 122 pounds. It is to be remembered that Bellow 11 came from next to last at the quarter pole to win the Waterford Mile going away.

Roman Navy, winner of ten races here this year and second in the Waterford Mile, is next with 119 pounds. Slipton Fell, from the successful stable of Cecil Rogers, is also asked to carry 119. Mrs. Mary Evans' good four - year - old filly Mary Charles is next at 116 pounds. Mary Charles is the winner of her last four races here under allowance conditions.

The remainder of the field is comprised of Frank Unger's Ki-D-Ka at 115 pounds; Leon Kersey's Jobal at 113 pounds, is coupled with Gettum, who carries the lightest impost of 109 pounds; Chance Gay, from the stable of Francis Robison, gets in at 111; Gerald Burheunne's Cebu is in at 110, as is Henry The Eighth, from the stable of Walter Culver.

The race is for three - year-olds and upward, going one and one-sixteenth miles for a purse of $3,500 added.

Entries for the race will be taken on Friday morning, Sept. 3. It is expected that most of those nominated will pass through the entry box and will be required to pay a $50 starting fee, beside the $10 already paid to nominate to the race.

Should ten starters face the barrier the race will gross $4,-180, of which $2,955 will go to the winner; $700 to the second horse; $350 third and $175 for fourth.

Post time Monday, for the double - header, is set at 2:15 p.m. for the afternoon card of ten races and 7:15 for the evening program of eight races.

Waterford Park will be closed on September 7, 8 and 9 but will reopen on Friday night, Sept. 10 for a 38 night session with post time set at 7:15 nightly, Mondays through Saturdays.

Autry Denies Rigney Rehired As Manager

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Los Angeles Angel owner Gene Autry denied Friday a published report that Manager Bill Rigney had been rehired for the 1966 season.

Autry, at Chavez Ravine for the Los Angeles-Kansas City game, said:

"In San Francisco today I talked about the policy of Gene Autry Enterprises retaining its executive staff. I think Rigney has done a good job. I said it wouldn't be long until we made a decision about next year, but I didn't say he would be retained."

Bo Wininger Continues To Pace Tourney

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — Bo Wininger fought off challenges Friday by PGA champion Dave Marr and former PGA champion Bobby Nichols to cling to a one-stroke lead in the $65,000 Oklahoma City Open.

Wininger, 42, coolly turned back all charges with a two-under-par 70, giving him a 139 total, five under par at the midway mark.

Marr shot a 69 for a 140 total.

Nichols, who won the 1964 PGA crown, was in strong contention, just two shots back, when he took an awful eight on the tricky No. 17, a 469-yard par-four hole, and finished at 74 to fall six strokes back.

Defending champion Arnold Palmer, recovering from an opening 75, shot a two-under-par 70 to match Nichols' 145 total.

Only eight of the 139 golfers owned sub-par scores at the 36-hole mark.

Randy Glover, a 23-year-old pro from Forence, S.C., cruised to a three-under-par 69 to take over third place with a 142.

Optimistic Note Sounded By Midland Grid Coach

13 Lettermen Are Listed; Quarterback Spot Is Chief Concern

By BOB DUFFY
Review Sports Editor

The most optimistic coach in the district can be found at Midland in the person of Joe Cochran.

When Cochran says "We will finish on the winning side" you better believe him. The former Canton McKinley assistant made a similar statement last season and after Midland had lost three of its first four games, not many followers gave the Leopards much of a chance for a winning season.

Reaching midseason, the Leopards began to jell and finished strong by winning their last five games to finish with a 5-3-1 record.

The mark also gave Midland the Midwestern Athletic Conference championship and the Leopards also were very much in the running for the Class A WPIAL title.

Cochran has 13 lettermen on hand who are scheduled to go both ways but the Leopard mentor readily admits he has "quarterback problems."

—:—

REPLACING Norm Vanlier, who was one of the outstanding all around players in the district last season, is the big worry in the Midland camp.

A set of hard running backs and a stout forward wall stands to make the Leopards contenders for the WPIAL title.

Bernie Mraovic, a 160-pound senior, was the No. 2 quarterback last season but saw very little action behind Vanlier. Mraovic spent most of his time on defense.

MRAOVIC has been working at quarterback but Cochran is trying other backs at the signal calling spot.

"Mraovic is doing an adequate job and throws the ball well but there is room for improvement," Cochran said.

Steve Alston, a consistent power runner, who flashed fine form last season at halfback, is a prime candidate for the quarterback post. Alston is a 165-pound senior and could be a big surprise at that position.

Another returning halfback is Jimmy Smith, a 150-pound junior and very deceptive runner. He looms as Midland's chief threat this season.

THE THIRD regular returning to the backfield is fullback Tom Wuchina, a 180 - pound senior who developed into a consistent back last season.

Leading candidates for the backfield, and a pair of backs who rank very high with Cochran, are Dave Vanlier, 175-pound sophomore and Pierre Robinson, 150-pound junior. Both are halfbacks and Robinson was out most of the last season with injuries.

The other lettermen are linemen including guards Anthony Rosatone, 200 - pound senior and Al Monac, 190-pound senior; tackles Glen Humbert, 195-pound junior, Anthony Ciccone, 190 - pound senior and Dan Clouse, 180 - pound senior, ends Rich Mahurt, 170 - pound junior, Larry Walkers, 175 - pound junior and John Williams, 160-pound junior, while at center will be another letter winner in Martin Ciancone, 190 - pound senior.

COCHRAN shows a squad of 57 players and pointed out a host of gridders who may see some action during the campaign.

He listed seniors Jerry Kaiser, 185 - pound end and Dan Gornack, a 240 - pound tackle, who lettered as a sophomore but didn't play in his junior year. Another senior which has caught the eye of the Midland coaching staff is Dennis Bradshaw, a hard hitting 175-pound end who is trying football for the first time while Chuck Morrow and Sam Morrow are vieing for end positions.

Other junior candidates show end Stan Cronin, (170), end Jerry Kaiser (185), guards Aaron Golding (180), and Joe Noah (170), and backs Jon Samuels (155) and Dick Stoffel (170).

PROMISING sophomores are guards Chuck McShane (170) and Paul Francis (165) and Don Epley (170), tackles Bill Love (180), Harry Short (220) and Bill Haggerty (170), center Barney Newman (170), end Steve Brozic and backs Bill Crute (145) and Dan Crumiti (140).

Cochran labels his team "strong defensively" and the Leopards showed a hard hitting defensive unit a year ago when they recorded four straight shutouts at one stretch.

Looking over the schedule Cochran feels East Liverpool will be one of the strongest opponents his Leopards will meet with Beaver, Rochester, New Brighton and Braddock among the better Pennsylvania teams.

Regulars lost from last year include Vanlier, and two big tackles in Chuck Franzetta and Jim DiTullio, along with fullback Harry Monohan, guard Sam Smith and end Aaron Berry.

Assisting Cochran again this season is Rey Peduzzi, former Potter assistant and Al Colledge, a new member of the staff. Colledge is a former Northwestern High athlete who was graduated from Geneva College.

The 1965 schedule follows:

Sept. 10 — Mohawk, home
Sept. 17 — East Liverpool, away
Sept. 24 — Beaver, away
Oct. 2 — Burgettstown, away
Oct. 8 — Monaca, home
Oct. 15 — Rochester, home
Oct. 22 — Braddock, home
Oct. 29 — New Brighton, home
Nov. 5 — Freedom, away

83,000 To Attend Pro Doubleheader

CLEVELAND (AP)—On the eve of their first 1965 home exhibition, the Cleveland Browns got a word of warning from their coach that history is against their repeating as national football league champions.

"About 30 teams have had the opportunity to try and repeat as NFL champions . . . only six have been able to do it," Blanton Collier told the Cleveland Touchdown and Ad Clubs Friday. His players were on hand to hear the talk.

Collier said he wanted "more than I can tell you" for his squad to join the select group of repeaters and he thinks the 1965 Browns can do it.

"We can win if they can look through their halos and concentrate on the job as they did a year ago," the coach said. "They must remember how they got there last year—the price they had to pay.

"This squad has the ability if the concentration has not been diluted."

The Browns meet the Green Bay Packers in the second game of tonight's doubleheader—pro football's fourth annual twin bill exhibition. The game's certain to draw around 83,000 fans, including about 4,000 standees.

Kickoff for the first game, between the Detroit Lions and New York Giants, is at 6:30 EDT.

The Browns have won four exhibitions and have one left next Saturday night in Akron against the Pitisburgh Steelers. The regular season opener for Cleveland is Sept. 19 in Washington.

The Browns are favored by only a single point over the Packers, and the Lions are rated to win their first practice game triumph by six points.

Coach Allie Sherman of New York is pleased with the Giants' new quarterback, Earl Morrall, obtained from Detroit on Monday and scheduled for use tonight.

Erich Barnes, who figured in the same three-club trade, probably will see some action for Cleveland, but the former Giant veteran is not expected to start at the strongside safety. Ross Fichtner is the likely starter at this spot.

Ceramic Handicap Draws 10 Entries At Waterford

Genghis Khan, the five - year-old son of Kaled — Bara Begum who races in the silks of Pittsburgh owned Keystone Stable, has been given top weight of 124 pounds for the Ceramic Handicap to be run here on Monday.

The gelding is the winner of a race at Hialeah this year, two at Gulfstream and one at Delaware. He will be coupled with the three - year - old Jayell, who finished third in the West Virginia Derby and is being asked to carry only 116 pounds in the Ceramic.

Below 11, racing in the colors of Mickey Saffron, Youngstown sportsman and winner of the Waterford Mile on July 10, is carrying second high weight of 122 pounds. It is to be remembered that Bellow 11 came from next to last at the quarter pole to win the Waterford Mile going away.

Roman Navy, winner of ten races here this year and second in the Waterford Mile, is next with 119 pounds. Slipton Fell, from the successful stable of Cecil Rogers, is also asked to carry 119. Mrs. Mary Evans' good four - year - old filly Mary Charles is next at 116 pounds. Mary Charles is the winner of her last four races here under allowance conditions.

The remainder of the field is comprised of Frank Unger's Ki-D-Ka at 115 pounds; Leon Kersey's Jobal at 113 pounds, is coupled with Gettum, who carries the lightest impost of 109 pounds; Chance Gay, from the stable of Francis Robison, gets in at 111; Gerald Burheunne's Cebu is in at 110, as is Henry The Eighth, from the stable of Walter Culver.

The race is for three - year-olds and upward, going one and one-sixteenth miles for a purse of $3,500 added.

Entries for the race will be taken on Friday morning, Sept. 3. It is expected that most of those nominated will pass through the entry box and will be required to pay a $50 starting fee, beside the $10 already paid to nominate to the race.

Should ten starters face the barrier the race will gross $4,-180, of which $2,955 will go to the winner; $700 to the second horse; $350 third and $175 for fourth.

Post time Monday, for the double - header, is set at 2:15 p.m. for the afternoon card of ten races and 7:15 for the evening program of eight races.

Waterford Park will be closed on September 7, 8 and 9 but will reopen on Friday night, Sept. 10 for a 38 night session with post time set at 7:15 nightly, Mondays through Saturdays.

Autry Denies Rigney Rehired As Manager

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Los Angeles Angel owner Gene Autry denied Friday a published report that Manager Bill Rigney had been rehired for the 1966 season.

Autry, at Chavez Ravine for the Los Angeles-Kansas City game, said:

"In San Francisco today I talked about the policy of Gene Autry Enterprises retaining its executive staff. I think Rigney has done a good job. I said it wouldn't be long until we made a decision about next year, but I didn't say he would be retained."

Bo Wininger Continues To Pace Tourney

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — Bo Wininger fought off challenges Friday by PGA champion Dave Marr and former PGA champion Bobby Nichols to cling to a one-stroke lead in the $65,000 Oklahoma City Open.

Wininger, 42, coolly turned back all charges with a two-under-par 70, giving him a 139 total, five under par at the midway mark.

Marr shot a 69 for a 140 total.

Nichols, who won the 1964 PGA crown, was in strong contention, just two shots back, when he took an awful eight on the tricky No. 17, a 469-yard par-four hole, and finished at 74 to fall six strokes back.

Defending champion Arnold Palmer, recovering from an opening 75, shot a two-under-par 70 to match Nichols' 145 total.

Only eight of the 139 golfers owned sub-par scores at the 36-hole mark.

Randy Glover, a 23-year-old pro from Forence, S.C., cruised to a three-under-par 69 to take over third place with a 142.

State's Fair Breaks Paid, Crowd Marks

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The 1965 Ohio State Fair has broken both the all-time paid and overall attendance records for the 112-year-old exposition.

Friday's ticket-buying fairgoers raised this year's paid attendance figure to 394,000, topping the record 373,700 set in 1963.

Total attendance of nearly 660,000 so far this year surpasses the 645,073 mark set during last year's 11-day exposition.

Fair Manager Edward J. Kierns said another 200,000 paying customers may pass through the gates before the big Labor Day weekend is over, making this by far the most successful Ohio State Fair in history.

The paid attendance figure was bound to pass the 400,000 mark, the number officials said was needed for the fair to break even on its free entertainment policy adopted this year for the first time.

Lowell Ulrey, the fair's fiscal officer, estimated gross receipts at more than $1 million.

Kierns said the free entertainment policy has been a key factor in the success of this year's fair. With one exception—The Ohio Jazz Festival—all grandstand entertainment and other shows, band concerts and harness racing have been presented admission-free.

Biggest attractions Friday were the Hullabaloo Show at the grandstand, featuring Johnny Rivers, and the Auto Thrill Show.

The Jimmy Dean Show will be presented at the grandstand tonight and Sunday, followed Monday by the Mike Douglas Show, with Brenda Lee, the Half Brothers, Marianne Faithful, The Casuals and the Four Seasons.

Today was Canton - Akron, Shrine and Junior Science Day.

A traffic light will be installed in the near future at the intersection of Route 267 and the Y & O Rd. in Glenmoor, Richard Mattern, guest speaker, disclosed at a meeting of the Glenmoor Firemen's Association Thursday night at the fire hall.

Mattern, in making the announcement, said that he had talked with Earl Nelson of Division 11 of the State Highway Department at New Philadelphia regarding the plan.

Referring to the water program being set up in the community, Mattern said he had discussed the situation with Frank Wilson and James Boyd, county commissioners, and that further reports will be completed by next month.

Ohio Officials Invited To Talk About Airports

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Officials interested in airport development, particularly those from Pickaway County, have been invited to attend a meeting in Columbus to discuss plans for the development of the state's airfields.

Ernie P. Webb, aviation specialist for the state, said Friday that Pickaway County has expressed a definite interest in the program because the county is now served only by two small, private fields.

Gov. James A. Rhodes met with representatives of the Division of Aviation and asked them to invite officials of more than 50 counties to the Sept. 9 meeting. The counties are those lacking an airport or one big enough to land a twin-engine plane.

At the meeting the officials will discuss plans and procedures for the administration's airport development program which will be financed partly with $5 million from a $290 million bond issue approved by Ohio voters.

The capital improvements bill passed on the final day of the legislative session permits state grants up to $100,000 each for development of airports. The money would be available on a matching basis.

The amount that counties will have to put up for their share has not been determined.

Requirements for runway length, airport acreage and financing proposals will be discussed at the meeting.

Officers Nab Youth To End Check Spree

East Liverpool police arrested a 19-year - old Glenmoor youth Friday afternoon and ended a 30-day check writing spree in which he obtained at least $819.

Robert Heiney of Lisbon St. Ext. is accused of passing 21 forged checks on the account of the Celli Music Center, Inc., of Broadway, where he formerly was a part - time employe.

Capt. Robert Pyle said Heiney was arrested shortly after cashing a forged $83 check at the Loblaw, Inc., Market on Bradshaw Ave. His preliminary hearing is scheduled Tuesday morning in Municipal Court.

An investigation that was touched off with the youth's arrest showed 15 checks had been removed from the back of a book in the music center, John Celli, the proprietor, told police.

Officers obtained photostatic copies of all the checks, which had been cashed in business places throughout the city and then cleared through the bank. They ranged in size from $20 to $83, with five drawn for $45 each and three each for $40 and $25. There were two for $35 and others for $47, $42, $30, $32, $49 and $41.

The endorsements showed five checks in all were cashed at Loblaw's and six were presented at the A. & P. Supermarket. Others were cashed at Bill's Department Store, Ray Wilson Sunoco Service on Pennsylvania Ave., Thrifty City and Petrosol Service, also on Pennsylvania Ave., Bricker's Isaly Dairy and Bloor's Pharmacy. Several others were cashed by individuals and then presented at the bank, the endorsements showed.

Two of the checks had been made out on the music center's own check protector machine. The others were made out with a pen, with the name of the payee and the amount generally printed.

The bulk of the checks listed Heiney as payee, while others listed the name "James Baumgarner," with the same name signed as the endorsement on the rear.

Capt. Pyle said it was not clear immediately whether Heiney was engaged in the forgery alone or if he had an accomplice who aided by cashing some of the checks. Questioning of the suspect continued at headquarters.

The youth now is awaiting a probation hearing in Common Pleas Court at Lisbon on a charge of burglary of the C. & J. Motors Co. office on W. 8th St. in April.

The series of checks carried dates beginning with Aug. 3 and continuing throughout the month.

The case came to the attention of police when Loblaw employes asked Capt. Pyle to look over a suspected check. Shown a photo of Heiney, a clerk identified him as the person who had presented the check. She was advised to file charges.

Celli was notified and made the investigation that disclosed the checks were missing from the book for his business account.

Capt. Pyle notified headquarters of the incident and asked officers to watch for Heiney. Patrolman William A. Devon, alerted by the message, started out of headquarters and met Heiney in the alley. Heiney said he had heard police were looking for him and was on his way to headquarters.

He was served with a warrant accusing him of passing the check a short time earlier. Signed by Helen Sillence, a Loblaw employe, it alleges he "forged and counterfeited" the $83 check "with intent to defraud." The check was drawn on Celli's account at the First National Bank.

8-Period Day Being Tried For East Junior Classes

An eight-period day rather than the usual six periods will be operated on an experimental basis this year at east Junior High School, Asst. Supt. George Hargraves and Principal Jerry Russell said today. It will mark the first time in the history of East Liverpool schools that 40-minute periods have been used, they said.

School administrators said they are endeavoring to learn first-hand the advantages and disadvantages and obtain the reactions of teachers and students.

IF THE PLAN is successful, it probably will be extended through all the secondary grades from 7 through 12, Hargraves and Russell said.

The eight-period plan has been discussed for the high school students for several years, but school officials feel it would not be feasible because of the present facilities. The eight-period plan would result in additional changes of classes among the three buildings in the high school complex, they explained.

There will be no change in the length of the school day, they emphasized. Ohio standards for secondary schools require pupils to be in class six hours a day.

The standards also determine the minimum amount of time classes must meet and also set the number of times classes must meet each week, the two administrators said.

The 55-minute schedule formerly used was based on 40-minutes of instruction and 15 minute of supervised study. However, teachers sometimes inadvertently would overlook the study time.

-:-

THE 40-MINUTE plan assures that students will be assigned to study halls, they said. It also matches more closely the students attention span.

Hargraves and Russell listed other advantages they could see in the new schedule.

The eight-period day will provide a stronger seventh-grade reading program, since reading classes will meet each day rather than three times a week.

It also will provide a gain in in teacher time so that one teacher can be in charge of the library for six out of eight periods without increasing the staff. The reading teacher formerly supervised the library on spot duty, they explained.

The new schedule also will eliminate all classes from the library. Reading classes used to meet in the library, forcing it to be closed to other students when classes were in session.

It also provides more flexibility in scheduling.

THE MAJOR scheduling changes will be in home economics, shop and physical education, they said.

Home economics classes for ninth graders, an elective subject, will meet 10 times a week rather than 5, which means classes will meet for two 40-minute periods a day rather than one 55-minute period, Hargraves and Russell said.

Home economics classes required for all seventh and eighth grade girls will meet twice each week, with a 40-minute lecture period on one day and an 80-minute laboratory period on the other.

Ninth-grade boys, who have elected to take shop classes, will meet for a double period daily, while the required shop courses for seventh and eighth-grade boys will be held for two double periods each week.

All students are required to take physical education and the classes will meet for two double periods each week, they said.

All other classes will meet for 40-minute periods five times a week.

Copy Of Magna Carta Flown To Washington

WASHINGTON (AP) — Under pressure from the barons of his realm 750 years ago, King John of England signed a document, the Magna Carta, limiting what he could demand of the barons and what they could expect from their men.

A rare original copy of its last major revision, issued 10 years later, was flown here from Britain Friday for display later this month. The occasion is a World Conference on Peace through Law, starting Sept. 12.

The original and its later revisions laid the foundation of the Anglo-Saxon system of individual rights and liberties, from which both the British and American systems have developed.

The Magna Carta — Great Charter — and a dozen other documents, some historic and some recent, will be included in a display to continue through Oct. 31 at the National Archives. They will be shown for a time alongside the U.S. Declaration of Independence and Constitution when those originals are returned to home base from the World's Fair in New York.

The 1225 Magna Carta, a revised version of the original signed by King John at Runnymede in 1215, was signed by John's successor, King Henry III. He noted in it that it was issued of the king's own free and spontaneous will.

It is in Latin and bears a fragment of the great seal. One of three copies in existence, it has never before been out of Britain.

Sir Patrick Dean, the British ambassador, in formally presenting the document to the U.S. archivist, Dr. Wayne C. Grover, said.

"I am delighted that this, its first overseas journey in 740 years, should bring it to the United States, a country which shares with us the history and the traditions of which this charter form a part."

Chief Justice Earl Warren, joining the ceremony at the ambassador's residence Friday, expressed this nation's gratitude to the British queen and government.

Hundreds of thousands of Americans will be better world citizens for having had the chance to view it, he said.

The document was flown here in the care of J. R. Ede, a principal assistant keeper at the British Record Office, and John W. Warner, a Washington attorney.

Before leaving London, Ede told newsmen:

"Ours is the final revised version of the 1225 charter which was re-enrolled on the statute roll and became law. When lawyers speak of the Magna Carta they refer to ours."

It was borrowed from the Duchy of Lancaster. The only two other copies are in the British Museum and at Durham, England.

Hospital Reports City Woman Poor From Car Fumes

A 24 - year - old city woman, overcome by auto fumes in a parked car along with her infant son and a Glenmoor man early Friday, was in "poor" condition today at Presbyterian Hospital at Pittsburgh.

Mrs. Irma Kidd of 502 Palissey St., transferred to the Pittsburgh hospital yesterday from City Hospital, began responding to treatment this morning and recognized members of her family for the first time.

Her 21-month-old son Donald was in "fairly good" condition at City Hospital.

Columbiana County sheriff's deputies said the woman and her son and Ben Beebout, 26, of 3rd St., Glenmoor, were found in the auto along Yeager Rd. near Glenmoor.

Beebout was treated at City Hospital and released yesterday.

An unidentified woman telephoned the home of Madison Township Constable Clarence Ammon Thursday night at 11:30, reporting a car tipped down along an embankment of Yeager Rd.

When Mrs. Ammon radioed her husband, Deputy Sheriff Herman Wellman in a cruiser near by heard the message and went to the site, discovering the three in the auto in which the motor was running. Beebout's auto was found a short distance down the road.

Deputy Wellman said Beebout told him he was behind the wheel of the car on a hill crest with the motor on. The car apparently drifted forward when the fumes overcame them.

Mrs. Kidd is the wife of an Air Force serviceman, officers said.

Officers Nab Youth To End Check Spree

East Liverpool police arrested a 19-year - old Glenmoor youth Friday afternoon and ended a 30-day check writing spree in which he obtained at least $819.

Robert Heiney of Lisbon St. Ext. is accused of passing 21 forged checks on the account of the Celli Music Center, Inc., of Broadway, where he formerly was a part - time employe.

Capt. Robert Pyle said Heiney was arrested shortly after cashing a forged $83 check at the Loblaw, Inc., Market on Bradshaw Ave. His preliminary hearing is scheduled Tuesday morning in Municipal Court.

An investigation that was touched off with the youth's arrest showed 15 checks had been removed from the back of a book in the music center, John Celli, the proprietor, told police.

Officers obtained photostatic copies of all the checks, which had been cashed in business places throughout the city and then cleared through the bank. They ranged in size from $20 to $83, with five drawn for $45 each and three each for $40 and $25. There were two for $35 and others for $47, $42, $30, $32, $49 and $41.

The endorsements showed five checks in all were cashed at Loblaw's and six were presented at the A. & P. Supermarket. Others were cashed at Bill's Department Store, Ray Wilson Sunoco Service on Pennsylvania Ave., Thrifty City and Petrosol Service, also on Pennsylvania Ave., Bricker's Isaly Dairy and Bloor's Pharmacy. Several others were cashed by individuals and then presented at the bank, the endorsements showed.

Two of the checks had been made out on the music center's own check protector machine. The others were made out with a pen, with the name of the payee and the amount generally printed.

The bulk of the checks listed Heiney as payee, while others listed the name "James Baumgarner," with the same name signed as the endorsement on the rear.

Capt. Pyle said it was not clear immediately whether Heiney was engaged in the forgery alone or if he had an accomplice who aided by cashing some of the checks. Questioning of the suspect continued at headquarters.

The youth now is awaiting a probation hearing in Common Pleas Court at Lisbon on a charge of burglary of the C. & J. Motors Co. office on W. 8th St. in April.

The series of checks carried dates beginning with Aug. 3 and continuing throughout the month.

The case came to the attention of police when Loblaw employes asked Capt. Pyle to look over a suspected check. Shown a photo of Heiney, a clerk identified him as the person who had presented the check. She was advised to file charges.

Celli was notified and made the investigation that disclosed the checks were missing from the book for his business account.

Capt. Pyle notified headquarters of the incident and asked officers to watch for Heiney. Patrolman William A. Devon, alerted by the message, started out of headquarters and met Heiney in the alley. Heiney said he had heard police were looking for him and was on his way to headquarters.

He was served with a warrant accusing him of passing the check a short time earlier. Signed by Helen Sillence, a Loblaw employe, it alleges he "forged and counterfeited" the $83 check "with intent to defraud." The check was drawn on Celli's account at the First National Bank.

8-Period Day Being Tried For East Junior Classes

An eight-period day rather than the usual six periods will be operated on an experimental basis this year at east Junior High School, Asst. Supt. George Hargraves and Principal Jerry Russell said today. It will mark the first time in the history of East Liverpool schools that 40-minute periods have been used, they said.

School administrators said they are endeavoring to learn first-hand the advantages and disadvantages and obtain the reactions of teachers and students.

IF THE PLAN is successful, it probably will be extended through all the secondary grades from 7 through 12, Hargraves and Russell said.

The eight-period plan has been discussed for the high school students for several years, but school officials feel it would not be feasible because of the present facilities. The eight-period plan would result in additional changes of classes among the three buildings in the high school complex, they explained.

There will be no change in the length of the school day, they emphasized. Ohio standards for secondary schools require pupils to be in class six hours a day.

The standards also determine the minimum amount of time classes must meet and also set the number of times classes must meet each week, the two administrators said.

The 55-minute schedule formerly used was based on 40-minutes of instruction and 15 minute of supervised study. However, teachers sometimes inadvertently would overlook the study time.

-:-

THE 40-MINUTE plan assures that students will be assigned to study halls, they said. It also matches more closely the students attention span.

Hargraves and Russell listed other advantages they could see in the new schedule.

The eight-period day will provide a stronger seventh-grade reading program, since reading classes will meet each day rather than three times a week.

It also will provide a gain in in teacher time so that one teacher can be in charge of the library for six out of eight periods without increasing the staff. The reading teacher formerly supervised the library on spot duty, they explained.

The new schedule also will eliminate all classes from the library. Reading classes used to meet in the library, forcing it to be closed to other students when classes were in session.

It also provides more flexibility in scheduling.

THE MAJOR scheduling changes will be in home economics, shop and physical education, they said.

Home economics classes for ninth graders, an elective subject, will meet 10 times a week rather than 5, which means classes will meet for two 40-minute periods a day rather than one 55-minute period, Hargraves and Russell said.

Home economics classes required for all seventh and eighth grade girls will meet twice each week, with a 40-minute lecture period on one day and an 80-minute laboratory period on the other.

Ninth-grade boys, who have elected to take shop classes, will meet for a double period daily, while the required shop courses for seventh and eighth-grade boys will be held for two double periods each week.

All students are required to take physical education and the classes will meet for two double periods each week, they said.

All other classes will meet for 40-minute periods five times a week.

Copy Of Magna Carta Flown To Washington

WASHINGTON (AP) — Under pressure from the barons of his realm 750 years ago, King John of England signed a document, the Magna Carta, limiting what he could demand of the barons and what they could expect from their men.

A rare original copy of its last major revision, issued 10 years later, was flown here from Britain Friday for display later this month. The occasion is a World Conference on Peace through Law, starting Sept. 12.

The original and its later revisions laid the foundation of the Anglo-Saxon system of individual rights and liberties, from which both the British and American systems have developed.

The Magna Carta — Great Charter — and a dozen other documents, some historic and some recent, will be included in a display to continue through Oct. 31 at the National Archives. They will be shown for a time alongside the U.S. Declaration of Independence and Constitution when those originals are returned to home base from the World's Fair in New York.

The 1225 Magna Carta, a revised version of the original signed by King John at Runnymede in 1215, was signed by John's successor, King Henry III. He noted in it that it was issued of the king's own free and spontaneous will.

It is in Latin and bears a fragment of the great seal. One of three copies in existence, it has never before been out of Britain.

Sir Patrick Dean, the British ambassador, in formally presenting the document to the U.S. archivist, Dr. Wayne C. Grover, said.

"I am delighted that this, its first overseas journey in 740 years, should bring it to the United States, a country which shares with us the history and the traditions of which this charter form a part."

Chief Justice Earl Warren, joining the ceremony at the ambassador's residence Friday, expressed this nation's gratitude to the British queen and government.

Hundreds of thousands of Americans will be better world citizens for having had the chance to view it, he said.

The document was flown here in the care of J. R. Ede, a principal assistant keeper at the British Record Office, and John W. Warner, a Washington attorney.

Before leaving London, Ede told newsmen:

"Ours is the final revised version of the 1225 charter which was re-enrolled on the statute roll and became law. When lawyers speak of the Magna Carta they refer to ours."

It was borrowed from the Duchy of Lancaster. The only two other copies are in the British Museum and at Durham, England.

Hospital Reports City Woman Poor From Car Fumes

A 24 - year - old city woman, overcome by auto fumes in a parked car along with her infant son and a Glenmoor man early Friday, was in "poor" condition today at Presbyterian Hospital at Pittsburgh.

Mrs. Irma Kidd of 502 Palissey St., transferred to the Pittsburgh hospital yesterday from City Hospital, began responding to treatment this morning and recognized members of her family for the first time.

Her 21-month-old son Donald was in "fairly good" condition at City Hospital.

Columbiana County sheriff's deputies said the woman and her son and Ben Beebout, 26, of 3rd St., Glenmoor, were found in the auto along Yeager Rd. near Glenmoor.

Beebout was treated at City Hospital and released yesterday.

An unidentified woman telephoned the home of Madison Township Constable Clarence Ammon Thursday night at 11:30, reporting a car tipped down along an embankment of Yeager Rd.

When Mrs. Ammon radioed her husband, Deputy Sheriff Herman Wellman in a cruiser near by heard the message and went to the site, discovering the three in the auto in which the motor was running. Beebout's auto was found a short distance down the road.

Deputy Wellman said Beebout told him he was behind the wheel of the car on a hill crest with the motor on. The car apparently drifted forward when the fumes overcame them.

Mrs. Kidd is the wife of an Air Force serviceman, officers said.

NOW THERE IS A TOTALLY NEW WAY
TO PURCHASE YOUR FAMILY'S FOOD
PUT A SUPERMARKET IN YOUR HOME

Enjoy quantity prices on guaranteed quality foods—delivered to your door!

Town and Country Food Service lets you shop tomorrow's way today! Few would have dreamed, a few short years ago, that food retailing techniques could advance beyond the modern supermarket, with its speedy self - service and mass volume prices.

Yet Town and Country has made such an advance — by bringing the supermarket to your home. And economists predict that this is the wave of the future.

What Town and Country service means to you. Imagine having a freezer full of guaranteed quality meats, fruits, and vegetables always at your fingertips! Imagine treating your family to U.S. Choice steaks, chops, roasts, more often; serving favorite fruits and vegetables out of season; planning exciting meals each day . . . without setting foot outside your door!

That's the unique promise of the Town and Country Distributor Food Service in your community. Town and Country supplies food in bulk, at quantity savings, along with a deluxe family-size commercial grade freezes. Already have a freezer? We'll stock it for you — and you pay even less. You order only the foods you want, delivered three or four times a year in Lo-Temp trucks from strategically located warehouses.

Now you do months of marketing in minutes! No more wearying waits in long check-out lines. No more fighting weather, towing children, struggling with heavy bundles. Town and Country puts more hours in your day for family, friends, community work — and the hundreds of things you'd rather do than market.

Now you feed your family guaranteed quality foods. All meats are government inspected U.S. Choice (the very cuts you'd choose yourself) trimmed of waste, properly aged to the peak of tenderness, then flash-frozen to seal in natural juices. All fruits and vegetables are whisked to the freezer plant within two hours of picking to insure garden freshness. And Town and Country guarantees every morsel!

Now you are always meals ahead! Humdrum menus are out. With a vast variety of foods to choose from, you'll never again worry about "what to have for dinner" — even when unexpected guests drop in.

27 GOOD THINGS TO EAT 27 GOOD THINGS TO EAT 27 GOOD THINGS TO EAT

NOW THERE IS A TOTALLY NEW WAY
TO PURCHASE YOUR FAMILY'S FOOD

PUT A SUPERMARKET IN YOUR HOME

Enjoy quantity prices on guaranteed quality foods—delivered to your door!

Town and Country Food Service lets you shop tomorrow's way today! Few would have dreamed, a few short years ago, that food retailing techniques could advance beyond the modern supermarket, with its speedy self - service and mass volume prices.

Yet Town and Country has made such an advance — by bringing the supermarket to your home. And economists predict that this is the wave of the future.

What Town and Country service means to you. Imagine having a freezer full of guaranteed quality meats, fruits, and vegetables always at your fingertips! Imagine treating your family to U.S. Choice steaks, chops, roasts, more often; serving favorite fruits and vegetables out of season; planning exciting meals each day . . . without setting foot outside your door!

That's the unique promise of the Town and Country Distributor Food Service in your community. Town and Country supplies food in bulk, at quantity savings, along with a deluxe family-size commercial grade freezes. Already have a freezer? We'll stock it for you — and you pay even less. You order only the foods you want, delivered three or four times a year in Lo-Temp trucks from strategically located warehouses.

Now you do months of marketing in minutes! No more wearying waits in long check-out lines. No more fighting weather, towing children, struggling with heavy bundles. Town and Country puts more hours in your day for family, friends, community work — and the hundreds of things you'd rather do than market.

Now you feed your family guaranteed quality foods. All meats are government inspected U.S. Choice (the very cuts you'd choose yourself) trimmed of waste, properly aged to the peak of tenderness, then flash-frozen to seal in natural juices. All fruits and vegetables are whisked to the freezer plant within two hours of picking to insure garden freshness. And Town and Country guarantees every morsel!

Now you are always meals ahead! Humdrum menus are out. With a vast variety of foods to choose from, you'll never again worry about "what to have for dinner" — even when unexpected guests drop in.

OFF THE RECORD

"The book was very unromantic, but the letter somebody used as a bookmark was terrific."

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. — How can I remesh a zipper that has pulled out of its slider?

A. — Remove the slider to the open end, hold it loosely, and insert the end tooth on the pull - out side into the slider where it belongs. Be careful to hold flat the rest of the zipper in front of the slider, so close they almost touch. If you are holding them correctly, you can hold the ends of the tape so the slider pulls up and meshes the teeth.

Q. — What can I do if I need an extra - large piece of wax paper, and have only a few smaller pieces?

A. — You can seal these together with a hot iron.

Q. — How can I reshape some of my small artist's brushes?

A. — Worn brushes can be reshaped, or special ones made to suit certain jobs, if you'll soak the bristles in water - soluble glue, shape to a compact mass, and let dry. Then rub the bristles over a coarse abrasive paper to form the shape you desire. Remove the glue with hot water.

Q. — How can I bring out the full flavor of raisins and dates?

A. — Try soaking them in a little boiling water for about five minutes. Two tablespoons of boiling water for each half-cup of fruit will be satisfactory.

Q. — Please suggest an easy, safe and mild bleach I can prepare at home for my hair.

A. — One good one is comprised of a cup of 15 per cent alcohol, a drop or two of glycerin, and the juice of a lemon.

Q. — Can you suggest a formula for making a good underarm deodorant at home?

A. — One very good one consists simply of bicarbonate of soda diluted with water. This is also a good body deodorant — just add a little bicarb to your tub of bath water.

Junior Editors Quiz on MERMAIDS

QUESTION: Are there such things as mermaids?

ANSWER: The sweet little mermaids in our picture are so attractive that it seems a shame to report that they do not exist. The idea that there are mermaids, half human and half fish, is one of the legends dreamed up by sailors who constantly travel the mysterious sea. At sea, things are often so far away, or so shrouded by atmosphere, that it is difficult to see them clearly. Many sea creatures are thought to have suggested the mermaid idea to sailors. The seal, with its large expressive eyes, has an almost human look when swimming along with only its head showing. At the upper left we illustrate the seacow or manatee, a sea-going animal with a trick of rearing out of the water. At a distance, such a creature may have looked like a person waving its arms. The dugong, a somewhat similar animal, may have also played a part in the mermaid legend. Both these creatures have fishlike tails.

FOR YOU TO DO: Color this picture, making the mermaid's hair golden yellow and her scales emerald green. Better, yet, draw your own version of a mermaid combing her long hair.
